

VOL. 14, NO. 218.

CONNELLVILLE, PA. MONDAY EVENING, JULY 24, 1916.

EIGHT PAGES.

PROCLAMATIONS, NOT BOMBS, DROPPED ON BERLIN BY AVIATORFrenchman in Notes Says He Will Not Kill Women and Children.*GERMANS RETREAT 12 MILES*Are Forced Back by Russians But Fighting Comes to an End to Allow Both Sides to Prepare for Resumption; British Make Gains in West.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, July 24.—Lieutenant Marchal of the French aviation corps last month left French soil and flew over the German capital upon which he dropped proclamations and then captured his flight, intending to land within the Russian lines. He was forced to descend, however, in Poland and was captured by the Germans.

The proclamations dropped by Lieutenant Marchal on Berlin stated that, though it was possible, the aviator refrained from bombing the open town and "thus kill the women and innocent children."

Lieutenant Marchal made a continuous flight of about 307 miles most of which he traveled in darkness.

BRITISH GAIN GROUND.

LONDON, July 24.—British troops have captured a large part of the village of Pozieres, says the official statement. They also gained some ground near High Wood in the direction of Guillemont.

The night, the statement adds, was comparatively calm.

TOREDO BOATS HIT.

LONDON, July 24.—Six German torpedo boat destroyers were engaged in a running fight by British light forces off Schouwen bank yesterday, says an official statement issued by the British admiralty this afternoon. The German vessels were repeatedly hit but they succeeded in reaching the Belgian coast.

Heavy firing was heard off the Dutch coast all day Sunday, says a Hague dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. Five German destroyers were observed returning toward Zeebrugge. Two of them had a heavy list.

BAD WEATHER IN SOMME.

PARIS, July 24.—Bad weather along the Somme front in northern France and last night passed quickly with the French troops there, the war office announced today.

In a raid near Vailly, north of the Aisne, German trenches were penetrated and some prisoners taken.

On the Verdun front east of the Meuse, there were small local engagements in the course of which the French took 30 prisoners making the total taken prisoner during the last 10 days in this district, 300.

GERMANS FALL BACK.

LONDON, July 24.—The Germans have been driven back 12 miles at one point on the Riga front, according to a Russian dispatch from Petrograd. Progress for the Russians is claimed on a front running from the Gulf of Riga to Ussuli, a distance of more than 30 miles, the greatest advance being made along the coast.

The dispatch says fighting went on without pause for four days prior to Sunday. It has now halted as the Russians require time to consolidate the ground they have gained and the Germans are waiting for reinforcements being brought from other sectors of the eastern front.

DEATH LIST GROWSTwo More Bomb Victims in a Critical Condition.

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Under the pressure of public sentiment which has been aroused over the bomb explosion that marked Sunday's preparedness parade here, the authorities today are working with determination to apprehend the perpetrator of the deed.

To the death list of six it is expected that two and probably more of the 44 injured will be added, five of the victims being reported in a critical condition. A reward of $1,000 has been offered by the brother of one of the victims.

LOSES RING.Ben Campbell Said to Have Dropped Diamond in Fountain.

The valuable diamond ring reported lost at Ohioville by Ben Campbell of town has not yet been found. Mr. Campbell is said to have dropped the ring into the fountain on the Ferncliff grounds at Ohioville yesterday afternoon. The ring was not found when the fountain was drained.

The ring, it is said, is valued at $125.

Five Are Drowned.

HOUGHTON, Mich., July 24.—James W. Pryor, 35 years old, his wife and two children and the child of C. E. Westcott, all of Houghton, were drowned in Portage lake last night when their motor boat collided with another. Westcott and his wife were saved.

YOU'VE GOT TO BE PATRIOTIC WHEN IN BALTIMORE

By Associated Press.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 24.—Policemen today began distribution of copies of a municipal ordinance providing that "musicians, performers or other persons shall stand while playing, singing or reciting 'The Star Spangled Banner.'"

Any person violating the provisions of the ordinance "shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than $100."

CRAWFORD FUND TOTALS $2,485State Historical Commission Increases Its Appropriation From $500 to $750.

There is little doubt but that the funds to become available for the erection of a monument to Colonel William Crawford will be adequate to provide a fitting memorial to the life and services of the distinguished pioneer and patriot and of such character that the whole community will feel a just pride in this long deferred but much deserved tribute to the town's most famous citizen.

Word has been received from Dr. George P. Donohoe, secretary of the Pennsylvania State Historical Commission, that at a meeting held in Harrisburg on Saturday the appropriation of the commission, as its share in providing for the Crawford memorial, has been increased from $500 to $750. There has already been turned over to the Crawford Memorial Commission by H. P. Snyder, its chairman, the sum of $1,235. With the city's appropriation of $500, the local fund now totals $1,735. The State Historical Commission's revised appropriation of $750 makes the total of all funds applicable to the purpose of a memorial $2,485.

The exact amount necessary to provide for a bronze statue, which the local commission has proposed as being more appropriate than a more marker on the city hall lawn, has not yet been determined. At the last meeting of the commission Rev. Ellis B. Burgess, secretary, was instructed to secure estimates of the cost of both the statue and a native stone base. This information has not yet become available.

The funds now available will not be sufficient to cover the expense involved by a memorial of the character suggested by the local commission, and the opportunity will be offered the community generally to share in swelling the fund to such an amount as will enable the commission to complete their work on a scale that will reflect credit upon the city. The State Historical Commission, City Council and personal friends of the chairman of the local commission having already responded liberally, it is anticipated that others, no less interested in the worthy project, will gladly assist in its consummation.

AUTO TAKES DROP.Plunged Over Bank But No One Injured.

J. A. Keslar and his son had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday morning when their automobile went over a bank on Cottage avenue.

Mr. Keslar was making the turn from Fayette street to Cottage avenue when he lost control of the car. The machine crashed into a fence and dropped six feet to the bottom of an embankment. In its fall it wrecked a coal shed and turned completely over, yet neither of the occupants of the car were hurt and the machine was not damaged to a great extent. The car finally lodged against a house.

DANNS PUBLISHED.Dunbar Township School Teacher to Wed in August.

Danns for the marriage of Miss Kathryn Burns of Leisencoring and John King of Pittsburg, formerly of Connellsville, were published yesterday morning at St. Vincent de Paul's Catholic Church at Leisencoring by Rev. Father J. J. Greaney.

The wedding will take place early in August. Miss Burns taught school in Dunbar township and is well and favorably known.

OHIOVILLE HOUSE GROUNDS TO BE ENLARGED; B. & O. GROUND NOW UNDER LEASE

Max Ruesh, proprietor of the Ohioville House at Ohioville, has leased from the Baltimore & Ohio railroad a triangular piece of ground between the hotel property and the railroad, which he will transform into a beauty spot, as part of the hotel grounds.

The Ohioville House has been greatly improved since Mr. Ruesh took over the management. It was repainted inside and out and its attractive appearance attracts many tourists as they alight from trains. The house is enjoying a record-breaking business this year. It is admirably located and guests and the accommodations and service so good that they are inclined to prolong their stay.

Ohioville was invaded yesterday by about 1,000 excursionists from Pittsburg, Connellsville, Uniontown and other points. It being the biggest day of the season, Ohioville as a summer resort, becomes more popular each year and the hotel managers are preparing to handle large crowds from COMPANY D, A MONTH IN CAMP, NOW EAGER FOR ACTIVE SERVICELocal Boys are Still at Camp Pershing, at El Paso, and All are Fit.*SHOTS COME FROM OVER RIVER*Wild Excitement When Massachusetts Troops Are Target of Bullets From Across River Rio Grande; Troopers Want to Charge But Not Allowed.

By O. R. Harwick, Staff Correspondent.

CAMP PERSHING, El Paso, July 20. Just four weeks ago today the boys of the Tenth regiment at their armory at the call of President Wilson and in this time they have undergone experiences and witnessed sights which they little dreamed of at that time. This month has been spent in hard work and in adapting themselves to changes of climate and by this time they feel they are fit for anything. To some the time has appeared long and to others very short, but from now on the time will drag slightly until a new camp is located or until the boys return home as the regular routine of camp is monotonous.

There is still rumor of us moving camp a few miles, but not enough to change conditions much. The Eighteenth is torn down to move today and it is presumed we will soon follow.

There was wild excitement here yesterday when the boys found out that the Massachusetts boys had been fired on by the Mexicans from across the river. They did not return the fire and in all about 50 shots were fired. The boys here heard the shots but did not know what it meant at the time. The point at which the shots were fired is directly across the river from where we are located and about a mile away. Nobody was hit, and the cause for the firing is not known, although the shots hit various parts of the camp. The boys wanted to charge but their commander held them in check.

The movies here are not censored very closely and are very antagonistic toward Mexico. One picture captain said: "When this gun is loaded, the shell will fall in one place only, Mexico." Another "If you shoot a non-com and miss, they will turn on Mexico and ready for business."

Company D boys are going to sleep tonight, they say. Coins were issued to them today. They had been complaining about the canteen since the issue of less meat and more vegetables and dried fruit, things are going better. Captain Harwick says things will now be kept in first class shape.

Monk Moser was out and got his hair cut yesterday. It is the only one of the kind in Texas, he says, and the boys believe him, too.

George Broad had a time yesterday and spent the afternoon hunting for it. He later disappeared and the boys feared suicide, but he turned up all right at bed time. Plunges in camp are mighty short at this time.

Several of the boys received cards from W. C. Bishop yesterday. Bill says it won't be long until he is with us. The boys are all glad to hear it.

Charles Thomas, who was laid up with cramps for several days, is all right again. Takes more than cramps to get Tommy.

Lieutenant Colonel Kruger had the officers out at 5:30 this morning for setting up exercises as they do them in the regular army. The exercises were strenuous and some of the officers kept the pace with difficulty.

Copies of the orders in regard to married men were distributed today, but it seems that they will have considerable difficulty in getting released at that. It is understood they have to swear their families are destitute and have to pay their own transportation home. Nobody from Connellsville has as yet made application for release and nobody seems to clearly understand the orders.

The body of Thomas Haag of Company M has been recovered from the Continued on Page Two.

MURDER AT EUREKAJoseph Rebusa Shot During Quarrel Over Woman, Dies.

Joseph Rebusa, 46 years old, a miner and beer agent, was fatally shot Saturday night at the Eureka works, opposite Jacobs Creek, by a Smithtown man, a fellow countryman, it is said. Rebusa was brought to the Cottage State Hospital, where he died yesterday morning about 6:30 o'clock. The men it is said quarreled over Rebusa's alleged attentions to his assailant's wife.

Rebusa was shot through the right side of his chest and although he was conscious practically up until his death he could not be induced to make a statement. He has a wife and three children. County Detective John Smith of Fayette county was notified of the murder and when he went to the scene he discovered it had been committed in Westmoreland county.

WIELDS UMBRELLAWomen Arrested and Fined for Fighting on Streets.

It cost Mrs. Elsie Titterton $2.50 in police court yesterday morning for "capping Gertrude Diehl on the head with an umbrella." The women had been arguing for some time, it is said, and the hard words were followed by blows. The altercation took place on East Fairview avenue.

The police arrived and escorted the women to the lockup. The Diehl woman left a $5 forfeit and did not appear for a hearing. Mrs. Titterton was fined $2.50 by Mayor Marietta for wielding the umbrella.

It is said that the quarrel was begun by Mrs. Titterton who objected to her son's alleged intimacy with the Diehl woman. Both women are from Connellsville.

WANTS GUARD RECALLED.Sensor Says They Were Mobilized Under False Pretenses.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Charging that the national guard was taken to the border under false pretenses were made by Senator Townsend today during debate on the army appropriation bill. He urged that the military forces not in actual service ought to be sent home.

"It now is apparent to everybody that the national guard is not going to Mexico and they were mobilized under false pretenses," said the Senator. "Diplomatic correspondence between the United States and Mexico discloses that there never was any intention of sending them into Mexico."

POET IS MOURNED.Riley's Body Will Lie in State Tonight in Indianapolis.

By Associated Press.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 24.—Flags all over the city and in many other cities of the state were at half mast today in memory of James Whitcomb Riley, who died suddenly Saturday night.

Preparations were begun early today at the state house for the body to lie in state from 3 to 9 o'clock this evening.

REPAIR SHOP BURNS.Fire Destroys Anderson's Property at Logan's Crossing.

A blacksmith and repair shop conducted by William Anderson, near Logan's Crossing, was destroyed by fire about 12 o'clock Sunday morning. The origin of the blaze is unknown but it is suspected that incendiaries may have started it.

Mr. Anderson's loss will be considerable as a good deal of valuable machinery and tools was lost in the fire.

Freight Boat Forbidden.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The proposed increases in freight rates on cotton piece goods from New England mills to New York, Delaware and Pennsylvania points were disallowed today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Senate Confirms Clarke.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The Senate judiciary committee by unanimous vote today recommended confirmation of the nomination of John H. Clarke of Cleveland, O., as associate justice of the supreme court to succeed former Justice Hughes.

Predict Floods.

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 24.—New flood warnings were sent by the local weather bureau today to the Eastern section of this state. Conditions similar to those of 1903 were forecasted for the Waccamaw river.

Cut in Oil Price.

TULSA, Okla., July 24.—The Prairie Oil & Gas Company today posted a price of $1.45 for Midcontinent crude, which is a cut of 10 cents compared with the price paid the last 10 months.

Weather Forecast.

Generally fair tonight and Thursday. Little change in temperature. The noon forecast for Western Pennsylvania.

Temperature Record.

	1916	1915
Maximum	92	78
Minimum	64	66
Mean	78	72

The Young river fell from 2.00 to 1.80 feet during the night.

ENGINEER MANGLED UNDER WHEELS OF A PASSING TRAINRobert M. Cooney Meets Death After 15 Years in Service of B. & O.*CROSSES TRACK FOR ORDERS*His Own Engine Stopped He Fails to See Another Freight Coming and Steps Directly in Front of It; Body Ground to Pieces, Funeral Tuesday.

Stepping from his engine in front of a shifting engine on the opposite track Robert M. Cooney, 35 years old, an engineer for the Baltimore & Ohio railroad for about 15 years, was instantly killed yesterday morning about 7:25 o'clock at Greensburg Junction. Mr. Cooney was leaving his engine to go to the tower for further orders. He failed to notice the approaching train in charge of Engineer John Smutz of the West Side, and stepped directly in front of it. The train was brought to a sudden stop and the mangled body was removed from beneath. The body was brought to Connellsville and removed to the funeral home of J. L. Sindor's parlors and prepared for burial. Later it was taken to the family residence in Tenth street. Funeral from the house tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock and from the Immaculate Conception Church at 9 o'clock. Requiem high mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father John T. Burns and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers will be in charge of the funeral interment in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Mr. Cooney had been in the employ of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad for the past 17 years and was well and favorably known among the railroad men. About two weeks before entering the service as a fireman he was promoted to an engineer. He had just completed his run on the Fairmont branch and was awaiting orders to place his train in the yards when he met his tragic death.

Mr. Cooney was born in Connellsville, March 1881 and spent all his life here. He was a son of the late Peter and Margaret McMahon Cooney. He married Miss Margaret Whitney, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Whitney of Connellsville. In addition to his widow he is survived by two children, Anna Margaret, four years old, and Robert, about four years old. Two brothers, William and Peter Cooney, both of Connellsville, and three sisters, Mrs. Edward McLaughlin, Mrs. George Biggel and Mrs. George Smith, all of Greensburg, Pa., were members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Eagles and the Immaculate Conception Church.

ELKS HAD HORNS, NOT MENDiscoveries by Doctor Donohoe's Party Somewhat Exaggerated.

Dr. George P. Donohoe, Dr. William K. Moorehead and other members of the expedition which is exploring the Susquehanna valley for Indian relics, state that misinformation has gone abroad as to the character of some of the discoveries the expedition has made. It is declared that the skeletons of prehistoric men found in a cave near Sayre, Pa., did not have horns, protruberances on the skulls, as has been stated.

About one skeleton a number of elk antlers had been heaped, and this gave rise to the story that a horned skeleton of a prehistoric Indian had been found. It is believed the horns were placed there because of some ritualistic rite, but they did not grow on the human skulls.

CONCERT TUESDAY.Connellsville Military Band to Play at Band Stand.

The Connellsville Military Band will give a concert at the band stand on Tuesday night. The program arranged by Director John E. Gaster is a good one. Mrs. W. H. Knapp, "Knocky" Appano, will be the soloist.

On next Sunday the band will play at Oakford.

BAND AND SOLOIST MAKE HIT AT PARK CONCERT.GREAT CROWD ON HAND

Scoring the greatest triumph in its 20 years' history, the Connellsville Military Band yesterday afternoon and evening added to its prestige in four great concerts at Shady Grove park. Director John E. Gaster secured a prediction of tone as from a mammoth pipe organ. Every number on the program was excellent. Miss Anna George, the dramatic soprano of Eversong, scored an instant success and responded to so many encores in the afternoon that Director Gaster, fearing she would be so fatigued that she could not sing in the evening, started on the next number to drown the applause. The attendance was about 2,000, the crowd at the last concert being the largest.

Manager R. S. Coyle of Shady Grove Park made the announcement that on next Sunday Nereida's Band will be the attraction, and the next Wednesday August 3, will be the Connellsville Day at the park. Nereida's Band, with Ben Fields as soloist, will be one of the many attractions which includes a baby contest with a $20 gold piece for the prettiest baby, a big fireworks display, free coffee, Kitelet's 10-piece orchestra, and many other features. Connellsville Day in the past has attracted the largest crowd ever in the park—14,000—and it is expected that this year's attendance will exceed that number.

The West Penn transportation men are fixing up everything about the car barns that has wheels under it and if every man, woman and child does not have a seat to and from the park on that day it will not be because an effort was not made to give good service.

This evening the Connellsville Military Band will entertain its friends at the park. Kitelet's 10-piece orchestra will play for the waltzes and the band for the one steps. For the last two seasons these band dances have been very popular.

TOLEDO PUTS BAN ON POP BOTTLES AT BAIL GAMESBy Associated Press.

TOLEDO, O., July 24.—The assault upon Umpire George Johnson at the local American Association park yesterday will result in the elimination of the pop bottle, according to plans under way by Manager Bresnahan and other stockholders of the club, it was announced tonight.

A paper substitute will be used, it was said.

NARROW ESCAPES AT BATHING BEACHBoy is Carried Off by Current and a Man Gets Attack of Cramps in Water.

The largest crowd of the season was at the South Connellsville beach yesterday afternoon. Every car brought numbers of people to the beach, some prepared to swim, others intending to watch the fun. In addition to the street car, a big jitney bus, labelled "To the Beach," was pressed into service.

The fair sex was in the minority among the swimmers, but there were quite a few women at that. Several girls were learning to swim, both teachers and pupils seemed to enjoy the process.

Five men performing athletic feats attracted much attention. Their favorite stunt was the formation of a human pyramid.

One bather was seized with cramps and was quickly removed to the shore. It is said that a boy was carried off by a strong current but was soon rescued by older swimmers.

The refreshment stand on the grounds was popular. In fact, it was so popular that it was sold out of soft drinks before the afternoon had really begun.

South Connellsville's "Coney Island" is becoming more popular everyday. As yet no one has taken the opportunity to make money out of it by erecting bath houses. Several tents, made from sheets, were used by the bathers yesterday for dressing rooms.

OHIOVILLE BATHER FINEDUniontown Man Pays $3 for Walking Around in Swimming Trunks.

Several Uniontown men ran afoul of Ohioville's ordinances yesterday and George S. Fuller, familiarly known as "Boss," was fined $3 by Burgess Radcliffe, J. W. for traveling from his hotel to the river, clad only in a bathing suit. The borough has a law prohibiting anyone from traversing its highways or byways unless conventionally garbed and what is more, the police force is enforcing it.

The Uniontowners had had a plunge in the river and were on their way back to the hotel to don the garb of civilization. Mr. Fuller was arrested by Chief of Police Harland Orndorff and taken before the Burgess. A second bather was told to appear at the Burgess' office after he changed his clothes. He did not appear, so now the Ohioville officers say they will be on the watch for him and will soak him $20 or $25 days to fail if they get him. The fugitive will likely do his bathing in Redstone creek, hereafter. This third member of the party was warned that the officers were in the vicinity and he got back to the hotel without being seen.

Ohioville has been shocked too much by bathers walking to and from the river in their swimming trunks, say the officials.

GAIN IN DEATHS.Infantile Paralysis Makes Headway in New York City.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Another gain in the number of fatalities and decrease in the number of new cases was reported by the health department today when the epidemic of infantile paralysis entered its fifth week.

During the 24 hours ending at 10 a. m. today, there were 31 dead and 89 new cases reported in the great city as against 23 dead and 116 new cases during the corresponding period yesterday.

STUCK BY BOLTConfidence Man and His Horse Stunned by Lightning.

During a severe thunder storm at Confidence Saturday, Shriver Oster of that place was struck and badly injured by a bolt of lightning. Oster is the son of Henry Oster, a prosperous farmer.

At the time he was struck, young Oster was removing the harness from a horse which he had just driven into the stable. The bolt of lightning buried the man outside the stable door and rendered his unconscious. The horse was stunned.

Dr. C. W. Frantz was called to attend Oster, and he soon found that the young man was not seriously hurt. Though not yet able to be around, his condition is much improved.

Peddler Arrested.

J. Lakzel, a local peddler, was arrested Saturday for selling without a license. Lakzel left a forfeit of $5 and did not appear for a hearing.

To Picnic at Shady.

Drowned in River.

Natal Deosinio, 27 years old, of Brownsville, was drowned in the Monaca river yesterday while in swimming.

NO WATER PIPE; COMPANY D DOES NOT BREAK CAMP

Soldiers are Satisfied With Life, but Want to See Some Action.

FEW WANT TO RETURN HOME

Unlikely That Married men Would Take Advantage of Opportunity to Leave Even if Granted, So Long as Real Service is a Possibility.

By O. R. Herwick, Staff Correspondent
CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., July 19.
We are still at Camp Pershing and from the outlook today we will be here for the balance of the week at least.
We were to have moved today but owing to the inability to secure about 800 feet of water pipe which is a scarcely article in this part of the country, the move was incomplete and we cannot move until the water is turned in. Everybody seems to be satisfied, however, as they would just as soon be here if there is no action in sight.

Hard drills are still the order of the day, the companies being put through each day for about an hour and a half.
The two remaining battalions of the Tenth held their first retreat last evening, every man in camp that was able being out. They were drilled by Colonel Coulter in person. The precedence with which the men handled their arms is an indication of their fitness. The guns at order arms struck the ground as one and the third could be heard quite a distance.

Lieutenant Colonel Walter Kreger, the new addition to the Tenth, has arrived in camp and is very popular with the boys. He was formerly a captain in the regular army and had been in Connelville on several occasions as an inspector and later as an instructing officer. Colonel Kreger will be a valuable aid to Colonel Coulter both in training and in actual service. If there is any, he is a former classmate of Dr. T. H. Edwards of Connellsville.

Mountain climbing is the principal form of recreation now. Every day there are parties formed for this purpose. The climbing is not hazardous but is a test of endurance. Some parts of the mountains are very rugged and covered with numerous sharp stones. The temperature is considerably cooler on top of the mountains and the view is magnificent. When the climber is reached you can see for miles into Mexico on one side and apparently all over the state of Texas on the other.
Mount Franklin is several thousand yards above surrounding country and drops off on both sides. The view is certainly worth the effort expended.

There is considerable gloom over camp today over the drowning of Private Hagg of Company M, Lathrop.
He was with the Third Battalion at their location 90 miles from Marathon.
He was in bathing in the Rio Grande and apparently got in quick sand as his body disappeared almost instantly.
Mr. Hagg was well known throughout the regiment.

A trip to the bakery yesterday revealed the fact that the big bakeries back home have nothing on the army.
Regular army men are used exclusively and are dressed in white from head to foot. Their uniforms are required to be changed daily and no man is permitted to handle the bread without donning his white uniform. They have a capacity of several thousand loaves a day, and the bread is of first quality.

Arch McConnel got a letter from his mother yesterday in which she informed him if he got sick or did not like the living to come right home.
Colonel Coulter would have nothing to say about this at all.

There has been no information received here yet in regard to the return home of married men. If those in action nobody wants to return, but the boys feel that they would be far better off at home than lying around here if there is nothing doing. So far there has been but one man in the Tenth that has made application to his captain to return home. He is from Lathrop. He was asked what he joined for and upon answering that he had joined for the benefit of the summer camp outings, was told that since he was there he would have to remain.
He says he has a mother, wife and two children and cannot keep them on 50 cents a day. He has not taken his case further yet. The present outlook is that a man will have considerable trouble in getting out.

Bert Richey has a new tent-mate—a fine water spout. Bert intends to bring him home.

John Ramage says he is getting pleasured. He is making 50 cents a day and is spending on an average of $1.50.
Won't be long until he has his pile made.

The hospital boys have their reading and writing tent in good shape and will appreciate any magazines that may be sent. They have a long writing table rigged up and a file containing the Connelville papers. They have something on the balance of Connellsville in the way of a Y. M.
C. A.

Buck Smith put his rope away and

THE ORIGINAL Horlicks

Malted Milk

The Food-Drink for all Ages

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form.
For infants, invalids and growing children.
Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body.
Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged.
More nourishing than tea, coffee, etc.

Substitutes Cost YOU Same Price

Younger Mexican Generation Gets Good Opinion of Our Soldiers

is now happy again. A new son was the cause of the delay in getting a letter. Luck says he is another recruit for Colonel Coulter.

Pat Stock has entirely recovered from his attack of indigestion and is living things up in Company D again.

Harold Herwick got another box of candy yesterday. Some girl; the boys all voted her.

Colonel Coulter says this place is one continuous thurst. The boys all agree with him.

The hospital corps boys got a taste of their own medicine yesterday.
Something they ate or drank gave the entire bunch cramps. They are treating easy on the cats today.

Company D boys are all in good health and spirits and enjoying the life.

U. S. COAL PRODUCTION

Increased Considerably in Quantity but Slightly in Value in 1915.

The production of bituminous coal and anthracite in the United States in 1915 amounted to 531,519,487 short tons, valued at $986,091,186, an increase, compared with 1914, of 18,094, 016 tons, or 3.5 per cent, in quantity, and of $5,200,543, or .8 per cent, in value, according to C. E. Lester of the United States Geological Survey.
Of this total output, 442,624,426 short tons, valued at $502,037,683, was bituminous coal and lignite, and 88,895,061 tons, valued at $184,053,498, was Pennsylvania anthracite.

Pennsylvania, with an output of 187,956,137 tons of bituminous coal and 98,956,061 short tons of anthracite, ranks first among the coal-producing states. West Virginia, with a production of 77,184,069 tons, Illinois, with 68,829,576 tons; Ohio, with 22,444,691 tons, and Kentucky, with 31,261,674 tons, follow in order of production.
Thirty states and the territory of Alaska contributed to the total, of which number 14 states had increased production, compared with 1914. To produce this coal, 734,107 men were employed for an average of 269 days.

The following table shows the production and value of bituminous coal mined in the several states:

State	Quantity	Value
Alabama	14,927,937	$10,097,043
Arkansas	1,400	3,008
California	1,022,108	2,939,460
Chas. and Nev.	12,303	32,105
Colorado	8,024,980	13,500,294
Georgia	134,400	231,891
Illinois	68,829,576	84,822,471
Indiana	17,000,132	18,037,470
Iowa	7,611,145	13,577,068
Kansas	6,824,474	11,300,030
Kentucky	31,261,674	21,004,008
Maryland	4,100,477	6,390,846
Michigan	1,150,133	2,372,707
Missouri	3,811,503	6,606,018
Montana	2,780,755	4,620,509
New Mexico	2,003,008	6,481,203
North Dakota	225,073	700,072
Ohio	22,444,691	24,207,075
Oklahoma	3,808,580	7,435,006
Oregon	36,231	117,246
Pennsylvania	187,956,137	107,410,705
South Dakota	10,583	16,384
Tennessee	6,730,301	9,470,910
Texas	2,083,308	4,447,407
Utah	3,108,717	4,016,016
Virginia	8,122,506	7,002,034
Washington	2,429,006	5,270,200
West Virginia	77,184,069	73,501,346
Wyoming	6,554,023	9,535,814
Total bit.	492,724,426	$502,037,683

Pennsylvania's production of 187, 956,137 tons of bituminous coal was 95.7 per cent of the total production of the United States and its value, $107,410, 705, was 33.7 per cent of the value of the total product. The average price of the Pennsylvania output was $1.05 per ton.

West Virginia, in second place, with a production of 77,184,069 tons, produced but 17.7 per cent of the total in quantity while the value of its production, $73, 501,346, was but 15.5 per cent of the total.
The average price of West Virginia coal was 95 cents per ton.

The miners of Pennsylvania averaged 226 working days; those of West Virginia 209 days.

Always Satisfactory.
People are always pleased with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. R. M. White, Turtle Bayou, Texas, writes: "We have been selling Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years and have not had one single complaint." Obtainable everywhere.
—Adv.

Hunting Bargains?
If so, it will pay you to read our advertising columns.

Eczema Is Conquered

Greasy salves and ointments should not be applied if good clear skin is wanted.
From any druggist for 50c or $1.00 for extra large size, get a bottle of Zemo.
When applied as directed, it effectively removes eczema, quickly stops itching, and heals skin troubles, also sores, burns, wounds and chafes. It penetrates, cleanses and soothes. Zemo is dependable and inexpensive. Try it, as we believe nothing you have ever used is as effective and satisfying as Zemo, Cleveland.

TOPCOATS FOR VACATIONISTS AND SEASONED TRAVELERS.

One of the fall models of topcoats is this, put up in navy velvet, a light weight, cut with a voluminous collar, "cuffed" hem and fullness which is confined by triangular buttons. A long three-quarter length, this coat answers many needs.

Mothers of Pennsylvania Take This Advice.

Franklin, Pa.—I have had a good experience with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I had overworked from nursing small children through scarlet fever, I was so weak, I was to be carried up and down stairs. I was led to use "Favorite" and by scrupulous and by keeping it up for some time got well and strong again. At other times I used "Favorite Prescription" for the troubles preceding childbirth. I used it a number of times for this purpose and always with the best results."
—Mrs. E. B. Strucke, 1212 Otter St.

When a girl becomes a woman, when a woman becomes a mother, when a woman passes through the changes of childhood, adolescence, and the periods of life when health and strength are most needed to withstand the pain and disturbances often caused by severe organic disturbances.

At these critical times women are best fortified by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, an old remedy of proved worth that keeps the entire female system perfectly regulated and in excellent condition.

If you need help get Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in liquid or tablet form from any medicine dealer to-day.
Address: Doctor Pierce, Invalids Hotel,
Buffalo, N. Y., and get confidential medical advice entirely free, also look on woman's diseases.

MEYERSDALE.

MEYERSDALE, July 24.—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hobbitt and son, James, who had gone to Baltimore to consult a specialist about Mr. Hobbitt's health, returned home Saturday and the condition of Mr. Hobbitt is very encouraging. His many friends hope he will soon be able to do at his office and will be in his usual good health.

Miss Cora Knepp, who several weeks ago was hurt in an automobile accident and had been in a Cumberland hospital taking treatment, returned home Saturday greatly improved.

Miss Florence Floto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Floto, who several years ago went to Akron, O., where they have since resided, is here for several weeks' visit with relatives and friends. Before returning home she will visit in Berlin and Rockwood.

Miss Mary Laffey of Cumberland is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
M. J. Livingston on Broadway.

Miss Rebecca Will is visiting friends at Somerset for a few weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. John Darrah recently visited their daughter, Miss Rosa, who is in training in a hospital in Baltimore.

Miss Myrtle Fermer of Akron, Ohio, is here for a few weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Mame Lynch of Punxsutawney is visiting her friends, Miss Regina Reich and Miss Mary Foley.

Misses Evelyn Gordon and Mae Dunort, open yesterday visiting friends in Cumberland.

Miss Mary Will has returned home after a few weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Addison.

John Billard of Connelville came up today for a visit at the home of his relative, Mrs. David Linder, Esq.

Mrs. Urias Smith of Morgantown,
W. Va., has been visiting at the home of her relative, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shill for the past week. She will leave Monday for Berkeley Springs where she will visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. J.
Brigg.

KANAWHA SYNDICATE OFFICERS.

Companies comprising 10 Hold Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The annual stockholders' meeting of the Parkersburg Bridge & Terminal Company, the Parkersburg & Eastern Railroad Company and the Little Kanawha Railroad Company were held at Parkersburg, W. Va., last week and the following directors elected:
J. M. Schoonmaker, J. J. Turner, John
G. Robinson, E. B. Taylor, W. F.
Brumer, D. H. Kennedy and J. T.
Blair, all of Pittsburg.

The companies comprise what is known as the Little Kanawha syndicate.

Read The Daily Courier.

The Cowboy Girl Says:

No. 31

HELMAR

TURKISH CIGARETTES

10 Cents

I am the "Helmar" Cowboy girl.

All over this land my face makes men glad.

For where I am, there you will find "Helmar"
Turkish cigarettes.

You will see me smiling at you in every cigarette store.

Take my advice and smoke a "Helmar."

The mildest tobacco for cigarettes is Turkish.

The best tobacco for cigarettes is Turkish.

Don't pay ten cents for anybody's cigarette until you have tried "Helmar," a fascinating, elevating, gentleman's smoke.

Smoking Makers of the Highest Grade Turkish and Egyptian Cigarettes in the World

Quality Superb

Cleanup Sale on Pumps and Low Shoes

Begins Tuesday Morning

INCLUDES EVERY LOW SHOE OR PUMP IN OUR STORE, ARRANGED IN 3 GROUPS FOR QUICK SELLING. SEE OUR WINDOWS.

Stylish Summer Footwear

$4.50 AND $5.00 PUMPS AND LOW SHOES IN BLACK DULL KID, WHITE AND GRAY CO-LONIALS, IVORY AND CHAMPAGNE KID, THE REAL DAINTY
PUMPS

$3.65

$3.25, $3.50 AND $4.00 PUMPS IN WHITE, PAT-ENTS, AND GUN METAL IN ALL SMART PATTERNS—ALL NEW THIS SEASON

$2.65

ALL OTHER PUMPS AND LOW SHOES WILL BE SOLD DURING THIS SALE AT $1.95. SAME
PRICES WILL BE ON MEN'S LOW SHOES IN BLACK AND TAN, AS THEY ARE IN WOMEN'S. ALL
CHILDREN'S PUMPS AND LOW SHOES REDUCED. REMEMBER THE DAY—TUESDAY MORN-ING AND CONTINUES 10 DAYS.

Downs' Shoe Store

Connellsville Most Dependable Shoe Store,
NORTH PITTSBURG STREET.

The Daily Courier.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice, Connelville, Pa.
THE COURIER COMPANY, Publishers.
H. E. BRYCE,
President and Managing Editor.
JAMES J. DRISCOLL,
Secretary and Treasurer.
Advertising and Circulation Manager.
MEMBER OF:
Audit Bureau of Circulations Pennsylvania Associated Dailies.

MONDAY EVENING, JULY 24, 1916.

THE RAVEN

The Democrats are much encouraged by the predictions of the New York Herald, that grim, unflinching, ghostly, gaunt and ancient journalistic raven... which comes prophesying evil for the Republicans because of alleged discord in their ranks and of their general unpreparedness.

The Herald declares that President Wilson in his seersucker suit is making hay in the Washington sunshine; that Hughes is a good campaigner, but a poor campaign manager; that the Democratic party is united and aggressive; that the Republican party is moribund and needs a pulmotor.

All this is gratifying to the Democrats and their organs print it with the information that the New York Herald is a Republican paper. The inference is that it is inside information. As a matter of fact the New York Herald never had any politics to speak of and it has been found supporting Democratic candidates and policies quite as often as any other. It claims to be independent in journalism. It likes to make a big splash now and then to advertise itself and is not particular what party it splashes.

It must be admitted that there is not much life to the Republican campaign, but the campaign is not yet opened. The Democratic headquarters are just as quiet save for sundry violent disturbances in the postal service. As for Hughes, it will be remembered that he was a sphinx until his nomination was announced, but that he galvanized into action with an energy which promises to win him the name of Sudden Charlie before the fight is over. He is undoubtedly a good campaigner and he will keep that seersucker suit on the jump this fall. As for the management of the Republican campaign, it will be in very competent hands. It is generally admitted that the Republican party has some experts in this line and their services will all be at the command of the chairman.

There is absolutely no discord in the Republican party. Its leaders have come together again in good faith for the purpose of rescuing the country from incompetent Democratic rule, and as announced by their candidate the fight will be for the election of a Congress as well as a President. The few Progressives who are standing out against Republican reunion are not all Republicans. Some of them were Democrats before they were Progressives. They represent an abandoned and empty organization. They are trying in some states to hang on to the shell for the purpose of promoting personal ambitions. None of them are national figures. They are all little men.

The Republican party is not moribund. It does not need a pulmotor. Because it is quiet is no sign of its death. It is preparing for the battle. When it opens the campaign the Democrats will no doubt find it lively enough. Sudden Charlie will keep them thinking and effective campaign management will do the rest. There will be a great awakening and the ancient raven will be able to croak another tale.

LAFAYETTE'S BIRTHDAY.

The 150th anniversary of the birth of Lafayette, the French hero, who gave his services to the cause of American independence in the war of the revolution, occurs on September 6th. Fayette county, which has the honor to bear his name, and had the further honor of entertaining the distinguished Frenchman when he visited this country in 1804, ought to begin at once to prepare for a fitting observance of this occasion.

Lafayette's sacrifices for and services to this country in the hour of its supreme need of strong friends constitute a part of our Revolutionary history and his memory ought to be second only to that of Washington upon whose staff he served with such fidelity to the Patriotic cause.

"In his own country and in ours," said President Jackson when announcing to the army and navy the death of the last major-general of the revolution, "he was the zealous and uniform friend and advocate of national liberty. Consistent in his principles and conduct, he never during a long life committed an act which exposed him to just accusation or which would expose his memory to reproach."

The least we can do to show our appreciation of the heritage the life and services of Lafayette have bequeathed to us would be to provide a public celebration of the anniversary of his birth. This need not be elaborate, but it should be of such a character that it will remind the present generation of the debt they owe to one who played so conspicuous part in the history of our country that our forefathers thought it fit and proper to perpetuate his fame by giving his name to one of the most important counties of the state.

A FIRE HOUSE SITE.

According to the schedule of deficiencies, by which the board of insurance underwriters determine the rates to be paid for insurance in cities and towns, Connelville has to pay a penalty of 18 cents, which would be eliminated were certain conditions met in the matter of fire protection.

One of the items in the list of penalties is "improper housing of the paid fire department." This does not relate to the manner in which the paid firemen are housed but to the fact that they are located at a point remote from the section of the town where there is a little heavy building, and the greatest amount of damage. To more nearly approach the conditions of the best fire protection, as required by the standards of the underwriters, fire fighting equipment should be located so that it can reach in the briefest possible time the sections wherein fire would be liable to result in the heaviest loss. This condition takes into consideration both the distance to be traveled in answering an alarm and the freedom of obstacles enroute.

In making choice of a site for housing the new truck for the department members of council will, we doubt not, be influenced solely by a consideration of the permanent advantages to be derived through better fire protection and the consequent reduction in insurance rates, and select a site that will best serve these purposes.

WHIPPING THE DEVIL.

The postmasters in their convention passed resolutions lauding the policy of Postmaster General Burleson by which each postmaster becomes the directing force of his office and his duties are not delegated to subordinate officials.

The practical operation of this policy has been the unlawful removal of assistant postmasters, who are Republicans, through the adoption of office methods which are not provided by existing postal laws. But they serve the present excellent political purpose of getting rid of appointees whom all preceding administrations, both Democratic and Republican, have retained without thought, intent or effort to evade civil service rules.

And so the Apostles of the New Freedom are whipping the Devil around the stump.

"The real cause of this trouble," says ex-Postmaster McNeill of Pittsburgh, "is my refusal to remove George W. Jones from office of assistant postmaster because he is a Republican. He is a competent man, and I would not do this, although certain Democrats in the office insisted that I do it in order to make a place for a Democrat. Democrats, not competent, are wanted, even more needed, in all Federal jobs in these days of Wilson-McCormick-Baumer reform."

Connellsville's infantile paralysis case promises to become celebrated, in the meantime the victim is fast becoming well and happy.

Senator Jim Main Lewis, an accepted Democratic authority, says that the country has grown rich and prosperous because of the war. Other Democrats, less candid and honest, are trying to make the people believe that it is all due to the wisdom, sagacity and foresight of the Wilson Administration.

"Mexico needs not a conqueror, but a good Samaritan," the prohibitionist James M. declares. There's plenty of opportunities to do the next the recruiting officers are still open.

The announcement that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will build a $500,000 freight storage house at Uniontown may well be credited. The company contemplates something of the same kind at Connelville. It has in fact, always maintained freight storage here until quite recently, and the fact in times past brought it considerable business.

The News may have circulation to burn, but it was positively not that kind of a fire.

In some of the lines of practical education concerning the Connelville school to a speech. Learning has a swimming pool wherein all ages and sexes may take refreshing lessons. The Connelville school authorities promise to remedy this deficiency in the education of the Connelville children, but the grown-up will have to make other arrangements, and cork corks will never be in style.

The European war has put everything down but prices.

A bunch of Allied warships are lying off the Norfolk coast and every now and then they send a wireless to the Deutschland, something like this: "I am waiting, honey, waiting. Way out here in the wet I'm waiting, yes, waiting, for you." But the Deutschland don't answer. When he gets ready to start, he will probably invite them all to swim down on the bottom of the sea to see him off.

Can your fruit carry, if you can.

Congress wants to know why the paper manufacturers demand so much more for paper than formerly. The war is blamed for certain increased costs, but the committee will ask to be shown. It is believed that the war is being blamed with too many things.

The Fayette County Gas Company wants another round with Harry Byrne. The gas company was probably taken unawares, but that is not necessarily a fault.

The Courier's suggestion that the Endowment and Ohio ought to have a Vice President located at Pittsburgh to look after the financially important interests there has been promptly followed by the announcement that First Vice President Thompson will have his headquarters in Pittsburgh. If we didn't believe the T. & O. policy was correct in right. We may add that we believe time will demonstrate that the policy is right.

Great Britain has banished a number of American firms for having commerce with Germany. Wonder what will happen if Germany banishes all the American manufacturers who are selling war munitions to Great Britain.

It has been decided in the Somerset county court that peddling protected by the Interstate Commerce Act, internal commerce must and shall be free.

If any mothers get the notion at this late date that they did not raise their boys to soldier with the Tenth regiment we would advise them to forget it. The youth may have some sick boys, but we are not ascertained none of them are ex-convicts from sold text.

Bon Voyage.

Editorial Wisdom

The Mount Pleasant Journal, contemplating great achievements by the Tenth on its border duty exclaims: "It should prove the Fourth Pennsylvania regiment's fortune of war to capture Villa how please would puff out the cheeks of its stay-at-home!"

The Elizabeth Herald, in advocacy of civic improvement, declares that a clean town attracts attention wherever and wherever it is seen. A dirty one attracts the public eye in even less time.

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason.

SAM AND JIM.

When old Sam Johnson sat in state, that man of letters, wise and great, with Burke and Goldsmith and the rest, Jim Bowdoin was the but and jest. They all must have their finger at Jim, and none had much respect for him. Nothing had some prophetic dream appeared before them at their club, and said, "This man who is your next, out whom you laugh with scornful noise, will by the multitude be read, when all your junk is stale and dead." Old Sam would then have raised a roar; "Bogons, false prophets—there, there!" And yet great Johnson, mighty sage, the shining marvel of his age, lives only in the book that Jim so reverently wrote of his doom and mortality. In sure, down to the judgment 'twill endure, while those who loved his little raman, have left but faint forgotten echoes of his name now on earth, whose work we think has little worth, will leave a shining name behind, while those who cut their humble grind, while pompous prodigies lie down, and dying, kill off their renown.

Kansas City

By GEORGE FITCH.

Author of "At Good Old Slaves."

Kansas City, the largest and loudest city in the middle west, is located beside and occasionally under the Missouri river. The city is in Missouri, but is so close to the state line that about 100,000 of its inhabitants have applied over into Kansas, where they are irretrievably lost to Kansas. In spite of this Kansas City's population does an amazing work and makes as much noise doing it as a million New Englanders.

Kansas City was first located beneath the bluffs of the Missouri, but climbed these bluffs with great exertion, and now it has spread over several dozen hills in a manner which makes a ride in a Kansas City street car resemble a trip in a roller coaster. The business section occupies two hills and a valley and the quickest way to get down to Main street is to take an elevator. It is a matter of fact that a trip in a Kansas City street car is a ride in a roller coaster. The business section occupies two hills and a valley and the quickest way to get down to Main street is to take an elevator. It is a matter of fact that a trip in a Kansas City street car is a ride in a roller coaster.

—and 10,000 real estate offices. The metropolis of the world in 1880, but after building an elevated railroad and 10,000 real estate offices it sustained a puncture and ran with a flat wheel for many years.

Kansas City packs many boxes and carts, sells implements and groceries to the great southwest and enters into relations between trains. It has many railroads, all of whose trains enter a prehistoric union depot on a double track which always has a waiting line of passenger trains on it. Kansas City has more good-looking $10,000 homes than any other American city, owing to the fact that when the ladder gets his cellar blasted out he has enough material to build his house. Kansas City men work hard, but will always stop an hour or so to talk about Kansas City in a low, well-modulated shriek of enthusiasm. The city is full of concentrated bustle, but it is also amusing itself by building parks, boulevards, gascon, club drives, and art galleries, and is going to be as handsome as any city in the world, or know the reason why.

Classified Advertisements.

One Cent a Word.
No advertisements for Less Than 15 Cents.
Classified columns close at noon. Advertisements of wants, sales, etc., received after that hour will not appear until the day following.

Wanted.

WANTED—YOUR BARBERING business. RENDINE'S.
WANTED—TRUCKERS AT B. & O. FREIGHT STATION. 24July24d

WANTED—COUNTERMAN AT cases; 345 Water street. 24July24d

WANTED—BOYS AT MILK GLASS works. Must be over 15 years old. 24July24d

WANTED—GOOD GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Apply 512 North Pittsburgh street. 24July24d

WANTED—WE HAVE SOME BIG bargains in second hand automobiles. WELLS-MILLS ELECTRIC COMPANY. 24July24d

WANTED—MAN TO WORK IN restaurant. Must bring good references. CUPP'S RESTAURANT, Water street. 24July24d

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Apply 228 South Ninth street, West Side, Greensburg. 24July24d

WANTED—10 LOW VEIN COAL miners. Apply at mine, Stewartstown, Pa. on B. & O. R. R. or at 1002 South Pittsburgh street, Connelville, Penna. DORROR COAL CO. 24July24d

WANTED—A GOOD MEAT AND poultry cook to do home style cooking for a restaurant. Must be of good character and furnish best of references. Write "RESTAURANT" care Courier. 24July24d

FOR RENT—TWO DESIRABLE flats. Inquire FLORENCE SMITH. 24July24d

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS. Apply 220 E. Fairview avenue. 24July24d

FOR RENT—NICELY FURNISHED room; centrally located; 128 Fairview avenue. 24July24d

FOR RENT—SIX ROOM HOUSE, East Fayette street. Inquire DR. FRANCIS. 24July24d

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM, use of bath and phone; 238 South Prospect street. 24July24d

FOR RENT—2 NICELY FURNISHED rooms. Location 100 East Main street. 24July24d

FOR RENT—ONE THREE ROOM apartment; one four room apartment. All conveniences; 298 E. Cedar avenue. Inquire 210 E. Cedar avenue. 24July24d

FOR RENT—FOUR ROOM HOUSE with bath, Trump Lane, CONNELLSVILLE CONSTRUCTION CO., 402 First National Bank Bldg. 24July24d

FOR RENT—3 ROOM MODERN dwelling, 111 Madison avenue. Reasonable rent to quick and reliable tenant. SHAW & BARNER, 410-411 Second National Bank Bldg. Both places. 24July24d

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—CHEAP SECOND HAND automobile. Inquire J. M. YOUNG'S STORE. 24July24d

FOR SALE—CONCRETE LOT ON paved street. Good location. Address "K. K." care Courier. 24July24d

FOR SALE—L. C. SMITH & BROS., typewriter model No. 5, factory repaired, guaranteed. Address 4031 Jenkins Arcade, Pittsburgh, Pa. 13June24d

FOR SALE—MY NEW UNDERWOOD, cheap for cash. Address 4041 Jenkins Arcade, Pittsburgh, Pa. 13June24d

FOR SALE—MY REMINGTON, LIKE new at a bargain. Address 4021 Jenkins Arcade, Pittsburgh, Pa. 13June24d

FOR SALE—ONE ONE-HORN fifth wheel, Studebaker wagon. Good as new. YOUGH PLUMBING CO. 10July24d

FOR SALE—6 ROOM HOUSE, NICELY located; paved street and sidewalk; pantry, bath and two porches. Hot air heat. Address "D. J." care Courier. 24July24d

FOR SALE—LOT 40x120 ON PAVED street. Cement sidewalk. Good clean location, on street car line. Address "D" care Courier. 24July24d

FOR SALE—3 LOTS ON SOUTH Pittsburgh street, 40x140. All located North side of Joe. Ruppman, Jr. property. M. HURLEY ESTATE. 24July24d

FOR SALE—SIX ROOM HOUSE with bath, located at 24 High street, Scotland. A bargain to cash purchaser. See H. Z. EIGHTER, Chestnut street, Scotland, Pa. 18July24d

Notice.

ALL BILLS FOR HAULING GARBAGE must be paid at City Hall on or before the 10th of each month, or the service will be discontinued.

Notice.

"I kin remember when backgammon an' spruce gum wuz all the rage."

"Two can live as cheaply as one, but the party hard on the family purse."

"I kin remember when backgammon an' spruce gum wuz all the rage."

"Two can live as cheaply as one, but the party hard on the family purse."

"I kin remember when backgammon an' spruce gum wuz all the rage."

"Two can live as cheaply as one, but the party hard on the family purse."

Mid-Summer Opportunities Full Summer Stocks—No Run Down Assortments

This applies to our dry goods departments. Just now, mid-summertime, we want to call the attention of the women to our full summer stocks in the dry goods department and the many beautiful things that are coming in daily for summer wear. Washable goods, consisting of novelties in every line, at medium prices—no rundown assortments. Special preparation for hot weather time—picnic time, excursion time, vacation time, is all on now, and the Union Supply Company has the goods and is prepared to furnish raiment of the right sort. To get a real nice dress, skirt, shirtwaist, or any sort of women's or misses' wearing apparel, you want to get it made, and at a Union Supply Company store is just the place to get your materials. Do not wear yourself out looking for just the thing you want, but go direct to a Union Supply Company store and you will get it.

We further call your attention to our very desirable stock of ribbons for hair bows, sashes, and girdles, in all the most wanted shades—colored stripes, Jacquard figures, and satin taffeta—all widths. Also satin brocade. We call your attention further to the beautiful line of organdie blouses, in plain, tucked, or embroidered models, also new white voile blouses with embroidered panels—remarkable values.

Union Supply Co.

63 Large Department Stores, Located in Fayette, Westmoreland and Allegheny Counties.

Warm Weather Footwear

FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

We are showing and selling lots of Oxfords, Pumps and Strap Slippers.

We always have the best of the new things and we do not charge fancy prices for them.

If you prefer High Shoes you will be most likely to find what will please at our store.

HOOPER & LONG

BRILLIANT AND DELIGHTFUL GEMS

from sacred music, sung by nationally famous chorists in vestments, followed by equally delightful selections from classical and operatic compositions—such is the artistic program to be given by the Westminster Choir on

The Third Day of the CHAUTAUQUA

FOR THE LAST PART OF THE NIGHT PROGRAM THE WESTMINSTERS WILL PRESENT IN BRILLIANT COSTUMES PORTIONS OF THE TUNEFUL AND POPULAR OPERA, "THE CHIMES OF NORMANDY." THE APPEARANCE OF THE WESTMINSTER CHOIR WILL LONG BE REMEMBERED IN THIS COMMUNITY. DON'T FAIL TO HEAR IT.

Single admissions to the Chautauqua attractions will total more than $7, but you can buy a season ticket from your Local Committee for only $2. DO IT NOW!

Connellsville, August 5th to 11th.

Have You Anything FOR SALE OR RENT

Do You WANT Anything

Try our Classified Ads
You Get Results

EVERSON MAN'S ELBOW FRACTURED WHILE WRESTLING

Match Results in Painful Injury for Russell Schaeffer on Saturday.

OTHER SCOTSDALE NOTES

Boys' Bible Class of Presbyterian Church Forms Bible Class; John Silko Buried in Scottdale; Health Department After Chicken Coops.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, July 24.—In a wrestling match at his home at Everson, Russell Schaeffer suffered a fractured elbow that necessitated his being taken to the Memorial Hospital at Mount Pleasant, and undergoing an operation to have the elbow properly dressed. Dr. Kurr of Everson had charge of the case. Schaeffer is 12 years old and is the son of Isaac Schaeffer of Brown street.

TO ENTERTAIN W. C. T. U.
Mrs. George W. Gordon will entertain the ladies of the W. C. T. U. at her Market street home tomorrow evening. All superintendents will have reports ready completed for the year and will submit them at this meeting.

FORM BASEBALL TEAM.
The Boys' Bible Class of the Presbyterian Church, in camp at Hatch Yards, have formed a baseball team. They won two games from Uniontown boys, who have a camp near there known as the "Innocents." The first game they won by a score of 5 to 1 and the second 22 to 5.

JOHN SILKO BURIED.
The funeral of John Silko, who died from cramps following the drinking of cold water at the mill, was held on Saturday morning and interment was made in the Scottdale cemetery.

NOTES.
Rev. William Baker of Liberal, Mo., who was reared in Scottdale, delighted the congregation at the Methodist Episcopal Church last evening with an excellent sermon.

Miss Hazel Hueffer entertained 24 of her friends at her Market street home on Friday evening. The evening was spent with games and music and refreshments were served.

John Rutherford, John Knowles and William Beddows have gone on a camping and fishing trip along the Great river.

Mrs. Charles Renner was called to Warren, Ohio, on Tuesday by the death of her mother. On Friday the body was brought to Braddock and buried in the family lot there. Miss Edna Renner has gone back to Warren, Ohio, with friends to spend some time.

Rex Piper of Pittsburgh is spending a few days with friends here. Miss Francis Gentry of McKeesport who has been the guest of the Misses Kennell, returned to her home yesterday. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Kennell who will visit friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murgrove spent Sunday with Mrs. Coughenour at Wooddale.

E. F. DeWitt and daughter, Miss Irene, left yesterday to visit friends at Meyersdale.

Some of the people in town suffered greatly from odors arising from chicken coops and last week Health Officer Frank Goshorn made a canvass of the town and where there were found the owners were given notice to get rid of them and keep chicken coops in good order and clean.

Miss Annie Horn spent Sunday at Ohio.

Miss Mary Sholt, y. night operator at the Bell telephone office, is enjoying a well earned vacation.

SMITHFIELD.

SMITHFIELD, July 24.—C. C. Davis of Greensboro and S. D. Burkett of Everett motored through here Saturday.

Miss Margaret Huhn was visiting friends in Uniontown Friday.

Mrs. T. P. Jones of Uniontown is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sutton, and other relatives.

Charles Costello, on the receipt of a message that his brother had been badly hurt near Fort Hill, left for there yesterday. After he had left another message came to his home here that his brother was dead. He worked for a lumber company and was killed by a logging truck turning over on him.

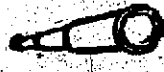

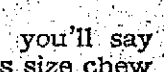

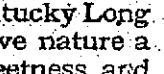

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie South of Point Marion were in town Saturday. W. J. Rube, Mrs. South's father, returned with them to their home in Point Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crow, daughter Thekla and son Cameron of Anderson's Cross Roads were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Neil Sunday.

TO SELL TICKETS

High School Alumni Will Canvass Town for Chautauque.

Members of the Conneltsville High School Alumni are very enthusiastic over the assurance of support, being given to them by the people of Conneltsville and vicinity in their efforts to provide high class and instructive entertainment. The association is to be commended in its action in permitting the High School Chautauque Association and if favorable comment may be taken as a criterion, the sale and disposition of the tickets will be an easy matter, and the success of the undertaking assured. A meeting of the association will probably be held within the next day or so at which the tickets will be distributed and arrangements made to deliver them to those who have signed pledges. Members of the association and their friends will canvass the city on Wednesday, July 26, at which time they have to dispose of all of the tickets.

You don't need a  to find the superior goodness of FIVE BROS Long Cut—it sticks out like a sore  Smoke one  of it pack away just one chew behind your wisdom  and you'll  right into line for FIVE BROS forever

Smoke up on FIVE BROTHERS and you'll say "Hooray, this is IT!" Then take a man's size chew of it. See how it packs right down solid and firm—see how the rich, sweet juice just pours out of it.

FIVE BROTHERS gives you this big smoke-and-chew satisfaction because it's real old Kentucky Long Leaf, aged from three to five years to give nature a chance to bring out all the mellow sweetness and the solid, substantial body of the leaf.

Buy a package of FIVE BROTHERS and try it. You'll get an altogether new idea of how much real-tobacco pleasure and satisfaction you can get for your nickel.

FIVE BROTHERS is sold everywhere—get a package today.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

Baseball at a Glance

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Yesterday's Results.

Chicago 3; New York 2.
Philadelphia 3; Cincinnati 1.
Boston 2; St. Louis 1.

Standing of the Clubs.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Brooklyn	48	33	.590
Boston	43	34	.558
Philadelphia	44	35	.557
Chicago	42	45	.483
New York	39	42	.481
Pittsburgh	37	42	.468
St. Louis	41	48	.461
Cincinnati	36	52	.409

Today's Schedule.

Philadelphia at Pittsburgh.
No other games scheduled.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Yesterday's Results.
St. Louis 5; Cleveland 2.
Chicago 12; Detroit 9.
10 ionings.

Standing of the Clubs.

	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	51	36	.586
Boston	49	37	.570
Cleveland	49	38	.567
Washington	47	40	.540
Chicago	47	40	.540
Detroit	46	44	.511
St. Louis	38	48	.437
Philadelphia	39	51	.437

Today's Schedule.

Chicago at Detroit.
No other games scheduled.

OHIOPELLE.

OHIOPELLE, July 21.—R. V. Rittenour was a business visitor in Uniontown yesterday.

Mrs. Harry Hall of White Corner was shopping in town Friday.

Edward Dye was a business visitor in Conneltsville yesterday.

Linton Joseph of Bear Run was here on business Friday.

Miss Anna Williams of Kentucky was a shopper in town Friday.

A hard rain and thunderstorm visited this section from 7 p. m. and last evening.

Oral Jackson returned from a business trip in Confluence.

Winston Linderman of Charleroi spent Friday calling on Ohiopele friends.

Freeman Davis was a caller in Conneltsville yesterday.

Henry Booth, Charles and Albert Barnworth were among the callers here yesterday.

It is rumored the Leslie reunion will be held here on Friday, August 11.

Use our classified advertisements.

BELL-ANS Absolutely Removes Indigestion. One package proves it. 25c at all druggists.

FIRE PREVENTION A CITIZEN'S DUTY SAYS FIRE MARSHAL

People Should Not Impose Job of Safeguarding Community on Firemen.

KEEP YOUR PREMISES CLEAN

Teachers in Schools May Assist by Instructing Children in How to Avoid Fires; Quotes From a Comedy of Errors That Caused Fires.

Charles D. Wolfe, acting state fire marshal, has issued a bulletin from his office at Harrisburg on "Fire Prevention by Fire Provenance." It says in part:

"As a good citizen you cannot impose the whole job of safeguarding the community on the Fire and Police Department, which are an expensive proposition, and to be worthy of consideration must at all times be properly equipped and ready for emergencies that may arise.

"It is your duty and the duty of your family and neighbor to see that homes, or business places, are such as to preclude the possibility of a fire caused by your own fault. Have you done this? Or are you, like many others, satisfied to go along permitting fire breeding material to accumulate, and knowing better, putting off until tomorrow what should be done today? Many have, and regretted it too late, and after a loss that might have been just as well avoided, have said, 'Well, it is too bad.' If I had only done this or that my home would have been standing. As it is I've got to start at the beginning and struggle twice as hard to recover what has been lost by my own neglect in observing the simple laws of cleanliness.

"Urge the teachers of schools to instruct the children in Fire Prevention. They will soon learn to avoid many causes of fires and in time will become the teachers of others.

"If you have given no thought to the subject, now is the accepted time to get busy and by your example show to your neighbors that you mean to put forth every effort to prevent fires and help reduce the loss which is as disastrous as it is necessary. It is for your special benefit that the movement for fire prevention is being pushed so vigorously in nearly every state in the country.

"The bulletin then quotes from a circular issued by the fire marshal of Wisconsin, which is termed a 'Comedy of Errors.' Here are some of the typical sentences:

"He looked for a gas leak with a match, and found it.

"He lighted a match to see if his gasolene tank was empty. It was not.

"He smoked while filling his auto tank, but will do so no more.

"He smoked in bed; so did the bed clothes.

"He washed his hands in gasoline near the stove. The doctor washes

HEAT FLASHES, DIZZY, NERVOUS

Mrs. Wynn Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her During Change of Life.

Richmond, Va.—"After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the change of life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedy to all my friends."—Mrs. Lydia E. Wynn, 2312 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, nervousness, irritability, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, spots before the eyes, irregular menstruation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness.

For these abnormal conditions do not fail to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"She cleaned her gloves with gasoline and saved 15 cents, but paid the doctor and druggist $15.

"She used gasoline to exterminate bed bugs. They are exterminated. She gave matches to her children to go out to burn leaves in the yard. The cotton dresses burned easier than leaves.

The bulletin concludes by saying: "The comedies have turned to tragedies; many of the scenes of action are in ashes and too many of the actors are maimed or asleep; others will follow, no doubt, as they are prone to ignore the advice and experience of others instead of profiting by the errors and sufferings."

CONFLUENCE.

CONFLUENCE, July 24.—The McKeesport Young Men's Christian Association camp, which was in camp at Ringers Grove for several days have gone to Indian Creek to camp a few days.

The Sunday excursion which the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad has been running from Pittsburgh to Ohiopele for years has been changed to run on Confluence, which it did yesterday.

Mrs. John Davis was called to Harrisburg, Pa., Saturday on account of the death of her sister's child.

Harry Brown, Baltimore & Ohio operator, Stoyestown, Pa., visited his parents here Saturday.

Don't forget to get your season ticket for the community chautauque.

Read The Daily Courier.

Only a Few More Days of This Gigantic July Clearance Sale

The superior value getting, bargain giving power of this event is getting bigger every day. Cases, racks, shelves must be emptied completely and sweeping clearance prices will do it. The most confirmed bargain seekers will marvel at the wonderful savings, offered during the windup of this event.

Come and Profit by These Rarely Occuring Economies

KOBACKER'S
"THE BIG STORE"
ON PITTSBURGH ST.

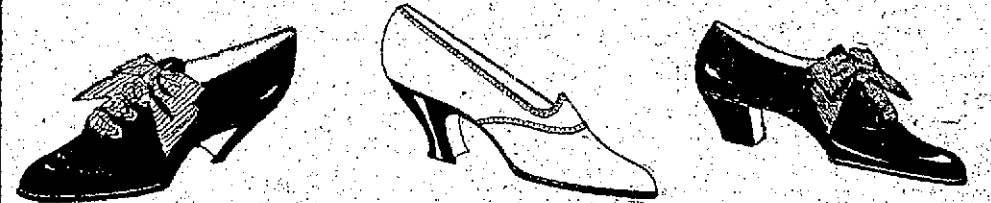

Clean-Up Sale

300 Pairs Women's $3.00 to $5.00

Pumps and Oxfords

Three Hundred Pairs of Summer $1.00 Pumps and Oxfords at PER PAIR

Every Shoe in this extraordinary low priced group is of the Crowley-Mestrezat quality standard. You will not find every size in every style, but there are all sizes from 2 to 5½ in the lot at $1.00

No charges, no exchanges, and no approvals. Strictly cash.

ALL OTHER WOMEN'S PUMPS AND OXFORDS REDUCED

One lot of Women's White Shoes and Pumps that retailed at $4.00 and $3.50, reduced to $1.90

$2.85 and $2.75 kind reduced to $2.15

$2.50 and $2.25 kind reduced to $1.95

$1.85 and $1.75 kind reduced to $1.25

$1.50 kinds reduced to $1.15

All $5.00 and $4.50 reduced to $3.15

All $4.00 and $3.50, reduced to $2.60

All $3.00 and $2.50, reduced to $2.00

One lot of $2.50 and $2.00 Children Low Shoes, sizes from 8 to 2, at $1.79c

All Other Children's Pumps and Oxfords Reduced

Sale starts Friday, July 21st, and lasts for 10 days. Come in and get some real bargains in Pumps and Low Shoes. All are well known makes.

COME EARLY

Crowley-Mestrezat Company

130 N. Pittsburg St.,

Connellsville, Pa.

DUNBAR.

DUNBAR, July 24.—Miss Gertrude Frances and James Connell of Clarksville, W. Va., are here for a few weeks as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Connell.

William Jacob of Railroad street, was a business caller in Conneltsville Saturday.

Mrs. A. Hurst was shopping in Conneltsville Saturday afternoon.

Subscribe for The Daily Courier.

O. B. Holt and Mr. Troy of Pittsburgh were calling on friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Ada Seigman and daughter Rachel, Mrs. Helen Jacobs and children and Mrs. Margaret Carr motored to Brownfield yesterday and spent the day.

Mrs. Thomas Hicks and daughter, Mrs. R. S. Cooper, returned home from Akron and Cleveland, where they have spent the past two weeks.

A number of people attended the band concert at Shady Grove Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibson are shopping in Conneltsville today.

Thomas Williams and son, Willard spent Sunday in Conneltsville.

Harry Smith was calling on friends in Conneltsville Sunday.

Hunting Bargains!

It so, it will pay you to read our advertising columns.

Read The Daily Courier.

AFTER ALL OTHERS FAIL CONSULT DR. GENTRY, SPECIALISTS

All Diseases Both Sexes Treated.
108 W. Main Street, Conneltsville, Pa.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND Ladies' Aid, Free from Chichester's Diamond Brand Pills, called with Blue Ribbon Take to the Heart, Buy at Blossom, As for Chichester's Pills, you know as Best, Satisfying, Always Reliable
SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

J. B. KURTZ,
NOTARY PUBLIC
AND REAL ESTATE

No. 3 South Meadow Lane,
Connellsville, Pa.

Patronize Those Who Advertise

A WOMAN OPPOSES GRANTING CHARTER FOR THE NEW ROAD

Widow of a Coal Operator Claims to Own Rights of Location.

ONLY DELAYS PROCEEDINGS

Attorneys for the New Company Claim: Ready to Make Answer in Case the Chairman Files Brief; New Road Will Save Wheeling Coke Every Million.

Opposition to the granting of a certificate of public convenience to the Wheeling & Eastern railroad has come from a woman and not from the Pennsylvania road as many Greene countyans expected it would. At the recent hearing before the Pennsylvania Public Service Commission on the application for the certificate, Mrs. W. C. Jutte of Pittsburgh, widow of the former Monongahela river coal operator, appeared with her attorney to protest against the issuance of the certificate.

Mrs. Jutte testified that 16 years ago her husband had made a survey and secured a charter for the Uniontown, Waynesburg & West Virginia railroad. She thought the Wheeling & Eastern railroad would interfere with their survey. She said that in the past few weeks she had been trying to get someone to build a railroad upon the survey her husband had made.

She admitted that no taxes had been paid upon their charter in West Virginia, but that the authorities in that state had informed her she could pay up the delinquent taxes.

The fight Mrs. Jutte is making against the granting of a charter to the Wheeling & Eastern railroad company is regarded as having a flimsy basis, says the Waynesburg Republican, but it is sufficient to cause delay in the granting of a charter to the Wheeling & Eastern.

Chief Engineer Jacobus and John Wilson, a civil engineer, who had formerly made a survey of the route, both testified that there was room for the construction of two railroads.

The rules of the Public Service Commission allow to Mrs. Jutte, or her attorney, 15 days in which to file a brief, and 10 days additional are allowed to the Wheeling & Eastern railroad to make a reply. The attorneys of the latter company say they will not require the 10 days allowed to them, however, and will file a reply shortly after the brief is filed.

The officers of the Wheeling & Eastern were present at the hearing and gave testimony tending to show their good faith and established the financial responsibility of the men backing the enterprise. The necessity of the road as a means of developing Greene county and affording its people an outlet to other sections was set forth by Senator D. S. Walton and others of Waynesburg. I. H. Knox, editor of the Waynesburg Republican, presented a petition signed by 1,800 to 2,000 citizens of Greene county asking that the railroad be built.

Chief Engineer Jacobus stated that the length of the road from Wheeling to McCann's Ferry is 57 1/2 miles. His estimate is that the cost of construction would be from $25,000 to $50,000 per mile; that the railroad would be a low grade road, providing for heavy tonnage and would be first class in equipment. The entire cost of the road would be $5,000,000 or $10,000,000.

J. H. Higgins of the Wheeling Steel & Iron Company gave some interesting testimony as to the saving in freight on coke from the Connelville region to the Wheeling industries, by the building of the new railroad. The amount of coke used in 13 blast furnaces of the Wheeling district is now 1,872,000 tons, annually. The freight upon this coke is $2,246,400, and by the construction of the new railroad, with an estimated rate 60 cents per ton less than the present rate, on shipments via Pittsburgh, the savings to the Wheeling iron and steel mills alone would be $1,123,200. The estimated cost of operating the new railroad, including repairs, is $750,000 per year, and the receipts from freight on coke alone to four mills in the Wheeling

HANLY IS CANDIDATE OF PROHIBITIONISTS FOR PRESIDENT.

J. FRANK HANLY, president of the prohibitionists assembled in convention in St. Paul, was formerly a Republican and as such was elected governor of Indiana in 1905, serving until 1909. He has also been a member of the Indiana senate and of the national house of representatives and ran for the United States Senate in 1909. Mr. Hanly is a native of Illinois and is 53 years of age. He is a lawyer and has his office and his home in Indianapolis.

district would amount, at 60 cents per ton, to $1,123,200, per annum. This would leave a net profit to the railroad on coke hauled from the Connelville region to the Wheeling mills, above all the railroad's operating expenses, amounting to $373,200 per annum, or over seven per cent upon an investment of $5,000,000 and over six per cent on an investment of $6,000,000, the highest estimate of the cost of the railroad. This estimate of receipts and net profits to the railroad did not embrace the hauling of other freight to and from Wheeling and coke and general freight to points beyond Wheeling.

VANDERBILT.

VANDERBILT, July 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Snyder Kelly of Dunbar, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kelly.

J. B. Henderson and family motored to Martins Ferry, O., where they will spend a week among relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William Long and children of Connelville, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McBurney of near Junata recently.

Misses Nel and Ruth Danley of Pittsburgh, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Collins.

Dr. G. B. Roberts and family motored to Morgantown, W. Va., yesterday, where they will visit relatives for a few days.

Aaron Haney, Arthur Dunn and Paul McKee of Buena Vista, were callers here Saturday.

Mrs. W. J. Lottender and son of Denver, Col., visited at the home of the former's brother, J. C. Moore on Friday evening.

Misses Elizabeth Madden, Mrs. Frank Madden and Paul Collins motored to Greensburg yesterday.

PERRYOPOLIS.

PERRYOPOLIS, July 24.—Rev. and Mrs. W. J. McKee and family of Monongahela City, are visiting the former's sisters, Mrs. Annie Blair and Miss Mae McKee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Snyder and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Stonger spent the week end with Mrs. Stenger's cousin, Mrs. Coffman at McClellandtown.

Mrs. I. H. Baugh was a Connelville shopper Saturday.

Mrs. Emma Blouwer and son and two daughters and Miss Robinson of Cheat Haven, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Townsend yesterday.

Miss Nina Carson spent Saturday at Kennyswood with friends.

Hunting Bargains.

If so, it will pay you to read our advertising columns.

Try Our Classified Ads.

One cent a word. They bring results.

SHERIFF'S SALES.

The following described property will be exposed to sale by Thos. L. Howard, sheriff of Fayette county, Pa.

on WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 9th, 1916, at 10 o'clock A. M. at the Court House in Uniontown, by virtue of the below stated writ, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Fayette County, Pennsylvania:

E. D. Brown, Attorney.

Allias writ of Levy, Pa. No. 30 September term, 1916. B. D. Sir Judgment No. 632 March Term, 1916.

R. M. Carroll and R. D. Brown now for use of A. J. Carr, and R. L. Morgan, vs. John W. Thompson, et al.

All the right, title, interest and claim of the defendant in and to all the following described tracts of land, situate formerly in the borough of Uniontown, now the City of Uniontown, and North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania:

TRACT ONE.—All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, described as follows: Beginning at a point in the center of Oakland Avenue in the other end of the party of the second part, thence north 53 degrees and 15 minutes, west, three hundred and sixty-eight and thirty-five one hundredths (368.35) feet; thence north 31 degrees, 34 minutes, east, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, three hundred and eighty-eight and thirty-eight one hundredths (388.38) feet; thence south 31 degrees, 37 1/2 minutes, west, one hundred and thirty and thirty-eight one hundredths (133.38) feet; to the place of beginning. Containing one and one-half (1 1/2) acres, more or less, upon which are erected a two-story dwelling house, partly frame and partly brick, and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT SIX.—All that certain tract or lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, described as follows: Beginning at a point on the corner of Chestnut and Arch streets, thence north 44 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along Chestnut street, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along Arch street, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT TWO.—All that certain lot of ground situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 7 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point on the corner of Chestnut and Arch streets, thence north 44 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along Chestnut street, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along Arch street, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT THREE.—All that certain lot of ground situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 8 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT FOUR.—All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 2 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT FIVE.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 1 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT SEVEN.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 10 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT EIGHT.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 11 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT NINE.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 12 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT TEN.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 13 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT ELEVEN.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 14 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT TWELVE.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 15 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT THIRTEEN.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 16 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT FOURTEEN.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 17 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT FIFTEEN.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 18 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT SIXTEEN.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 19 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT SEVENTEEN.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 20 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the Connelville Coking Coal, and underlying minerals, together with all the rights and privileges granted and reserved by Daniel Downer et al. to Presley H. Moore, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Being the same tract of land conveyed to Joseph W. Thompson by deed of Daniel Downer et al. dated August 16th, 1907, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

TRACT EIGHTEEN.—All that certain lot of land situate in North Union township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, being marked and designated as lot No. 21 in plan of lots laid out by Daniel Downer, dated March 11th, 1889, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Fayette county, in Deed Book Vol. 82, page 167.

Beginning at a point in the line of an alley, thence north 55 degrees, 15 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; thence south 54 degrees, 30 minutes, east, along the alley, one hundred and thirty-five one hundredths (135.15) feet; to the place of beginning. Upon which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and usual outbuildings.

Excepting and reserving, therewith and therefrom, all the nine foot vein of coal, commonly known as the

Copyright, 1913, by Doubleday, Page & Co.

"It's quit for the season," Danny Randall told him. "Like everything else, in two weeks at most there won't be a score of men left in Italian Bar." He observed our astounded incredulity, smiled and continued: "You boys came from the east, where it rains and gets over it. But out here it doesn't get over it. Have you been down to look at the river? No? Well, you'd better take a look. There'll be no more bar mining done there for a while. As for what's a mining camp without mining? Go talk to the men of '39. They'll tell you. The season is over, boys, until next spring, and you may just as well make up your minds to hike out now as later. What are you laughing at?" he asked Johnny.

"I was just thinking of our big vigilante organization," he chuckled.

"I suppose it's true that mighty few of the same lot will ever get back to Italian Bar," agreed Danny, "but it's a good thing for whatever community they may hit next year."

Johnny and Old elected to take their wages in dust. Al decided on the order against the San Francisco firm. Then we wandered down to where we could overlook the bar itself.

The entire bed of the river was filled from rim to rim with a rolling brown flood. The bars, sand pits, gravel banks had all disappeared. Whole trees bobbed and sunk and raised skeleton arms or tangled roots as they were swept along by the current or caught back by the eddies, and underneath the roar of the waters we heard the dull rumbling and crunching of boulders rolled beneath the flood. A crowd of men was watching in idle curiosity. We learned that all the cradles and most of the tools had been lost and heard rumors of cabins or camps located too low having been swept away.

That evening we held a very serious discussion of our prospects and plans. Yank announced himself as fit to travel and ready to do so, provided he could have a horse. The express messengers were out of a job. I had lost all my tools and was heartily tired of gold washing, even had conditions permitted me to continue. Beside which we were all feeling quite rich and prosperous. We had not made enormous fortunes, as we had confidently anticipated when we left New York, but we were all possessed of good sums of money. Yank had the least, owing to the fact that he had been robbed of his Peruvian silver product and had been compelled for nearly three months to the idle, but every he could count on a thousand dollars or so sent out from Hancock's Gulch. I had the most, for my digging had paid me better than had Johnny's express ridder. But much of my share belonged of right to Talbot Ward.

Having once made up our minds to leave, we could not go too soon. A revolution seized us. In two days the high winds that immediately sprang up from the west had dried the surface moisture. We said goodbye to all our friends—Danny Randall, Dr. Rankin, Barnes and the few miners with whom we had become intimate. Danny was even then himself preparing to return to Sonoma as soon as the road should be open to wagons. Dr. Rankin intended to accompany him, ostensibly because he saw a fine professional opening at Sonoma, in reality because his shy, hidden passion he loved Danny.

We made our way out of the hills without adventure worth noting. The road was muddy and a good deal washed-in fact, we had occasionally to do considerable maneuvering to find a way at all around the landslides from the hills above.

One afternoon we turned off on a trail known to Old and rode a few miles to where the Pine family had made its farm. We found the old man and his wife inhabiting a large two roomed cabin situated on a flat. They had already surrounded a field with a fence made of split pickets and rails and were working away with the tireless energy of the born farmer, not hesitating to plow, and from somewhere or other they had procured a cock and a dozen hens.

For a brief period Yank and I quite envied the lot of these pioneers who, with a settled stake in the country.

"I wish I could go in for this sort of thing," said Yank.

"Why don't you?" urged old man Pine.

"There's a bit just above us."

"How did you get hold of this land?" I inquired curiously.

"Just took it."

"Doesn't it belong to anybody?"

"It's part of one of these big Greaser ranches," said Pine impatiently. "I made a good try to get to the bottom of it. One fellow says he owns it and will sell; then comes another that says he owns it and won't sell, and so on. They don't know how this country, except a few cattle comes through once in a while. I got tired of mauling with them, and I came out here and squatted. If I own anybody anything they got to show me who it is. I don't believe none of them knows themselves who it really belongs to."

"I'd hate to put a lot of work into a place and then have it move out," said I doubtfully.

"I'd like to see anybody move me out!" observed old man Pine grimly.

CHAPTER XXVII.
San Francisco Again.

WE left our backwoods friends reluctantly, and at the top of the hill we stopped our two horses to look back on the valley. It lay, with its brown, freshly upturned earth, its scattered broad oaks, its low wood crowned knolls, as though asleep in the shimmering warm floods of golden sunshine. Through the still air we heard plainly the beat of an ax and the low, drowsy clucking of hens. A peaceful and grateful feeling of settled permanence, to which the restless temporary life of mining camps had long left its strangers, filled us with the vague stirrings of envy.

The feeling soon passed. We marched cheerfully away, our hopes busy with what we would do when we reached New York. Johnny and I had accumulated very fair sums of money in spite of our loss at the hands of the robbers, what with the takings at Hancock's Gulch, what was left from the robbery and Italian Bar. These sums did not constitute an enormous fortune, to be sure. There was nothing spectacular in our winnings, but they totaled about five times the amount we could have made at home, and they represented a very fair little stake with which to start life. We were young.

We found Sacramento under water. A sluggish brown flood filled the town and spread far abroad over the flat countryside. Men were living in second stories of such buildings as possessed second stories and on the roofs of others. They were paddling about in all sorts of improvised boats and rafts. I saw one man keeping a precarious equilibrium in a baker's trough, and another sprawled out face down in a rubber tub, paddling over-side with his hands.

We viewed these things from the thwarts of a boat which we hired for $10. Our horses we had left outside of town on the highlands. Everywhere we passed men and shouted to them a cheery greeting. Everybody seemed optimistic and inclined to believe that the flood would soon go down.

"Anyway, she's killed the rats," one man shouted in answer to our call.

We grinned an appreciation of what we thought merely a facetious reply. Rats had not yet penetrated to the mines, so we did not know anything about them. Next day in San Francisco we began to apprehend the man's remark.

Thus we roved cheerfully about, having a good time at the other fellow's expense. Suddenly Johnny, who was steering, dropped his paddle with an exclamation. Yank and I turned to see what had so struck him. Beyond the trees that marked where the bank of the river ought to be we saw two tall smokestacks belching forth a great volume of black smoke.

The Small Boat Immediately Heeded In His Direction.

"A steamer!" cried Yank.

"Yes, and a good big one!" I added.

We lay to our oars and soon drew alongside. She proved to be a side wheeler of fully 700 tons, exactly like the craft we had, often seen plying the Hudson.

Along toward midnight as I was leaning on the rail forward watching the effect of the moon on the water, and the shower of sparks from the twin stacks against the sky, I was suddenly startled by the cry of "man overboard" and a rush toward the stern. I followed as quickly as I was able. The paddle wheels had both instantly reversed, and a half dozen sailors were busily lowering a boat. A crowd of men, alarmed by the trembling of the vessel as her way was checked, pointed out from the cabins. The fact that I was already on deck gave me an advantageous post, so that I found myself near the stern rail.

"He was leaning against the rail," one was explaining excitedly, "and it gave way, and in he went. He never came up!"

Everybody was watching eagerly the moonlit expanse of the river.

"I guess he's a goner," said a man after a few moments. "He ain't in sight nowhere."

"There he is!" cried a half dozen voices all at once.

A hand shot into sight a few hundred yards astern, blowing the silvered water aside. The small boat, which was now astern, immediately headed in his direction, and a moment later he was hauled aboard amid frantic cheers. The dripping victim of the accident clambered to the deck.

It was Johnny!

He was beside himself with excitement, spluttering with rage and uttering frantic threats against something or somebody. His eyes were wild, and he fairly foamed at the mouth. I asked him by the stern rail, and he then became coherent, though he still spluttered. Johnny was habitually so quietly reserved as far as emotions go that his present excitement was at first utterly incomprehensible.

It seemed that he had been leaning against the rail, watching the moonlight, when suddenly it had given way friend and employer, John McGlynn. Evidently John had no longer a monopoly of the training business, but as evidently what he said went with this wild bunch.

There We Had $5 Worth of Various Things Done to Us.

Most of the wagons were loading goods brought from the interiors of storehouses alongside the approach to the wharf. In these storehouses we recognized the hulls of ships, but so shored up, dismantled and cut into by doors and stories that their original appearance only their general shapes remained. There was a great number of these storehouses along the shore, some of them being quite built about by piers and platforms, while two were actually island several hundred feet. I read the name Nevada on the stern of one of them and found it to have acquired in the landward side a square false front. It was at that time used at a hotel.

"Looks as if they'd taken hold of Talbot's idea hard," observed Yank.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Johnny Buys a Drink.

THE place was full of new buildings, some of them quite elaborate two, three story structures of brick, and elevated plank sidewalks had taken the place of the old mudshits. Although the streets were still the center of town, the streets immediately off it had gained considerable dignity and importance. There were many clothing stores and a number of new saloons and gambling houses. As we were picking our way along we ran into an old acquaintance in the person of the captain of the Panama. He recognized us at once, and we drew up for a chat. After we had exchanged first news Johnny asked him if he knew of a place where a fair price could be raised on the diamond.

"Why, the jewelry store is your ticket, of course," replied the captain.

"So there's a jewelry store, too?" cried Johnny.

"And a good one," supplemented the captain. "Come along, I'll take you to it."

It was a good one and carried a large stock of rings, chains, pendants, watches and spending trumps. The latter two items were the most prominent, for there were hundreds of watches and apparently thousands of spending trumps. They stood in rows on the shelves and depended in ranks from hooks and nails. Most of them were of silver or of silver gilt, and they were plain, chased, engraved, hammered or repoussed, with always an ample scope for inscription. After Johnny had concluded a satisfactory arrangement for his diamond I remarked on the preponderance of spending trumps. The man grinned rather maliciously at our capt.

"They are a very favorite article for presentation by grateful passengers after a successful sea trip," he said amiably and dismissed our plans.

"At this our captain exploded. "Are they?" he boomed. "I should think they were! I've got a dozen of the confounded things, and as I've just got in from a trip I'm expecting another any minute. Good Lord, he cried as a group of men turned in at the door, "here come some of my passengers now! Come along! Let's get out of this!"

He dragged us out a back door into a very muddy back alley, whence we flourished to dry land with some difficulty.

"That was a narrow escape!" he cried, wiping his brow. "Let's go get a drink. I know the best place."

He led us to a very ornate saloon whose chief attraction was the fact that its ceiling was supported on glass pillars. We duly admired this marvel and then wandered over to the polished mahogany bar, where we were joined by the half dozen loafers who had been lounging around the place. These men did not exactly join us, but they stood expectantly near by were they disappointed.

"Come, let's all take a drink, boys!" cried the captain heartily.

They named and tossed off their liquor and then without a word of farewell, chuckling, slumped back to their roosting places.

"What's the matter, Billy?" demanded the captain, looking about curiously.

"Where's your usual crowd?"

"They're all down at the Verandah," replied the barkeeper, passing a cloth over the shiny wood of the bar. "Dorgan's got a girl tending bar. Pays her some ungodly wages, and he's getting all the crowd. He'd better make the most of it while it lasts. She won't stay a week."

"Why not?" I asked curiously.

"Married, sure," replied the barkeeper briefly.

"And the glass pillars will always be here, eh, Billy?" suggested the captain.

"Nevertheless, I believe we'll just wander down and look her over."

"Sure," said Billy indifferently.

"That's where all the rest are."

The Verandah, situated on the Plaza, was crowded to the doors. Behind the bar stood a half dozen busy drink mixers. The girl, and a very pretty girl she was, passed the drinks over the counter and took in the dust.

We did not try to get near the bar, but after a few moments regained the street. The captain said farewell, and we hunted up by his direction the New York Tensorial Emporium. There we had $5 worth of various things done to us, after which we bought new clothes.

The old ones we threw out into the street along with a vast collection of others contributed by our predecessors.

"Now," said Johnny, "I feel like a new man. And before we go any farther I have a little duty to perform."

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

grinned rather maliciously at our capt.

"They are a very favorite article for presentation by grateful passengers after a successful sea trip," he said amiably and dismissed our plans.

"At this our captain exploded. "Are they?" he boomed. "I should think they were! I've got a dozen of the confounded things, and as I've just got in from a trip I'm expecting another any minute. Good Lord, he cried as a group of men turned in at the door, "here come some of my passengers now! Come along! Let's get out of this!"

He dragged us out a back door into a very muddy back alley, whence we flourished to dry land with some difficulty.

"That was a narrow escape!" he cried, wiping his brow. "Let's go get a drink. I know the best place."

He led us to a very ornate saloon whose chief attraction was the fact that its ceiling was supported on glass pillars. We duly admired this marvel and then wandered over to the polished mahogany bar, where we were joined by the half dozen loafers who had been lounging around the place. These men did not exactly join us, but they stood expectantly near by were they disappointed.

"Come, let's all take a drink, boys!" cried the captain heartily.

They named and tossed off their liquor and then without a word of farewell, chuckling, slumped back to their roosting places.

"What's the matter, Billy?" demanded the captain, looking about curiously.

"Where's your usual crowd?"

"They're all down at the Verandah," replied the barkeeper, passing a cloth over the shiny wood of the bar. "Dorgan's got a girl tending bar. Pays her some ungodly wages, and he's getting all the crowd. He'd better make the most of it while it lasts. She won't stay a week."

"Why not?" I asked curiously.

"Married, sure," replied the barkeeper briefly.

"And the glass pillars will always be here, eh, Billy?" suggested the captain.

"Nevertheless, I believe we'll just wander down and look her over."

"Sure," said Billy indifferently.

"That's where all the rest are."

The Verandah, situated on the Plaza, was crowded to the doors. Behind the bar stood a half dozen busy drink mixers. The girl, and a very pretty girl she was, passed the drinks over the counter and took in the dust.

We did not try to get near the bar, but after a few moments regained the street. The captain said farewell, and we hunted up by his direction the New York Tensorial Emporium. There we had $5 worth of various things done to us, after which we bought new clothes.

The old ones we threw out into the street along with a vast collection of others contributed by our predecessors.

"Now," said Johnny, "I feel like a new man. And before we go any farther I have a little duty to perform."

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

We entered the Arcade, as the bar was called. At once the loaves moved forward. Johnny turned to them with an engaging air of friendliness.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

"Which is?"

"Another drink at the sign of the Glass Pillars, or whatever they call the place."

"We don't want anything more to drink just now," I protested.

"Oblige me in this one treat," said Johnny in his best manner.

MINE FOREMAN AT UNITED KILLED BY A FALL OF SLATE

John J. Tumilty Meets Sudden Death in Mine on Saturday.

LEAVES WIDOW AND 9 CHILDREN

First Union Open Air Service of the Mount Pleasant Churches in Frick Park Next Sunday Night; Police Gather in Mine on Saturday Night.

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, July 24.—John J. Tumilty, aged 43 years, assistant mine foreman at United, was killed by a fall of slate Saturday. The case was reported to Coroner James Harkins and Julius Reichman of this place took charge of the body. Tumilty leaves a wife and nine children. The interment will be made Tuesday morning in St. John's cemetery at Scott-dale and a special car will be run there.

The seven months old child of Frank Harkins of Standard shaft, who died at its home there, was buried in the Polish cemetery yesterday afternoon following funeral services at the Polish Church.

Coroner James Harkins was at New Florence yesterday morning investigating the death of James Borling, aged 1 year, who was killed by a train while trying to board another train.

Next Sunday evening will be the first open air union service in the Frick Park. The Municipal Band will give a concert and Rev. Hartman will make an address.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the eighth Sunday school district held yesterday afternoon, T. O.
Anderson was elected president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. L. E. Yahn and Rev. W. T.
Lyle was chosen vice president to take the place of Clyde Weaver, who resigned on account of moving to Irwin.

Miss Leda Brown spent Saturday in Pittsburg.

Chief of Police John Nugent gathered in Albert Guretsky for being drunk.
He was released on a $5 forfeit.

Police Officer William McClain gathered in Ben Grant for being drunk and disorderly. He was released on a $5 fine. W. C. Stout was also arrested for being drunk and disorderly and was released on a $5 forfeit. C. E.
Quene was arrested for being drunk and disorderly and was released on a $5 forfeit. All of the hearings have been set for 7 o'clock this evening.

SANATORIUM ENLARGED

New Wing of Cresson Institution Is Enlarged.

Cresson, Pa., July 24.—The new wing of the Cresson State Tuberculosis Sanatorium has been opened for patients. This new addition which has been in the course of construction for the past 18 months increases the capacity of the institution 500 beds.

Commissioner of health, Dr. Samuel
G. Dixon, was not present and the admission of patients was not marked with any ceremony.

The new structure harmonizes architecturally with the main body of the sanatorium buildings and completes the institution as it was originally planned by Dr. Dixon.

With the completion and opening of this addition, the capacity of the Cresson Sanatorium will be 680 beds. With 1,120 at the Mont Alto Sanatorium and 500 at Hamburg this will make the total number of free beds in the State sanatoria available for indigent sufferers from tuberculosis, 2,300.

Every one of these institutions is filled to its capacity and there is a waiting list of more than 800 tuberculosis sufferers seeking admission.

OBITUARY

OBITUARY, July 24.—H. C. Jones of Pittsburg spent Sunday with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Herzberger and son, William, of Scottsdale spent Sunday the guests of Obispo friends.
Frank and Fred Rafferty of Swis-svale spent Sunday with their parents here.

Mrs. E. H. Kennedy and daughter, Miss Nellie and Hattie, left last evening for a week-end visit at Swis-svale, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F.
Rafferty.

Mr. and Mrs. Glendonning and baby of Bradlock spent Sunday calling on Obispo friends.

Mrs. W. G. Corlison returned to her home here Sunday after a week's visit with friends in Pittsburg and vicinity.

Wade Jamison and Chit Francis of Connellsville were Sunday visitors
here.

Walter McFarland and Ray Wolfe of Swissvale spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Ernest Glatfelter and daughter, Helen, of Beaver Falls, are spending a few days here.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Hush of Connellsville are guests at the Obispo house for a few days.

Rev. Frye spent Saturday and Sunday at his charge at Somerset.

St. H. Hochstetler spent Saturday and Sunday at his parents' home in Sand Patch.

Mrs. Milton Wildy is the guest of friends in Connellsville for a few days.

Walter Churuk and nephew, Joseph Churuk of Uniontown, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Churuk Sunday.

Mrs. Bright and son of Connellsville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
F. E. Burdette Sunday.

Guy Hamilton of Pittsburg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Hamilton on Garrett street.

Miss Helen Hush is ill at her grandparents' home here with a slight attack of quinsy.

Use our classified advertisements.

French Drum and Curtain Fire

Heralds Further Drive by Allies.

As a result of recent slight gains the British held the line from Thiepval southward to Longueval, shown in the upper portion of the accompanying map. Their line joined the French line northeast of Hardecourt, about the center of the map. The double line is the old battle front before the Franco-British advance. The British are trying to reach Dapenne, and the French immediate objective is Peronne, both important railroad and road centers. The French not command the railroad from Comblis to Clery, leading to Peronne, and have overrun a wide stretch of German first line trenches. French artillery is increasingly active, indicating new attempts to advance the infantry.

At the Theatres

SOISSON THEATRE.

"THE MYSTERIES OF MYRA."—
Whether or not the casual observer is willing to take black magic, devil worship, the interchanging of spirits and the projection of astral bodies over great distances seriously, he will be keenly interested, even thrilled, by the incidents in this thrilling serial,
"The Mysteries of Myra," which features Jean Sothorn and Howard Estabrook. The seventh episode finds Myra and the Black Master each possessed of the proper spirit while the latter is still intent on killing the girl. Varney, whose love has turned to hate because Myra has shown plainly that she cares for Dr. Alden more than she does for him, attempts to take the girl's life, but does not succeed. Herbert Rawlinson and Agnes Vernon are featured in the splendid two reel Gold Seal comedy,
"Nature Incorporated." An all around good fellow marries a doctress of nature and makes the best of the unusual near-to-nature life.
An excursion to the city and the old life convinces him that the nature colony is the real thing. "War-Ridden Mexico," is a Rex special showing views of the actions where the fighting is going on and other tense scenes. "A Stranger in His Own Home," is an imp comedy with Jane Gail and Matt Moore. A man leaves home to get away from his mother-in-law. Tomorrow, the Red Feather production, "Dr. Neighbor," in five reels with Robert Bosworth and Dorothy Davenport. This beautiful picture will strike a responsive chord in the heart of every man, woman and child who sees it. Wednesday, the beautiful actress, Violet Mercereau, in "Broken Fetters."

PARAMOUNT THEATRE.

"THE MASKED RIDER."—A five part Metro drama in five acts, starring May Allison and Harold Lockwood, in the feature attraction today Bruce Edmonds takes a place in the revenue service to help rout the moonshiners in the hills of North Carolina, and to avoids the murder of his brother, George Edmonds. George, who was a landscape painter, had selected the picturesque locale in the south for his work. While there he became infatuated with Jill Jamison, a mountain girl, and daughter of Jimmy Jamison, owner of the But Cave Hotel.
The friendship between the girl and George aroused the enmity of Squid and George quarrel over the girl.
George is found dead with a bullet in his head. Bruce arrives at But Cave disguised as a paragon. Jill's father is away when Bruce arrives and the moonshiners headed by Squid are taking advantage of his absence.
Bruce quells a disturbance they have started and wins the respect and favor of Jill. After that Bruce and Jill are often seen together. Bruce learns much of his brother's life from Jill.
Later Bruce appears as a masked rider and his identity is discovered by Jill. Bruce while leading a group of government agents into the moonshining district, the moonshiners are driven out when Bruce explodes a very heavy charge of dynamite. Bruce is shot by Squid and as Jill starts Squid starts to fire a second time.
Jill strikes him over the head with a chair, rendering him unconscious.
Jill nurses Bruce until he recovers sufficiently to accompany her to a real parson. Tomorrow the second chapter of "Gloria's Romance," starring Billie Burke, and Dustin Faraum in "David Garrick," will be the attractions.

ARCADE THEATRE.

"PRINCESS ROMANOFF."—As pictured by the William Fox forces, this production gives to Nance O'Neil, America's greatest emotional star, full scope for the display of her invincible powers of dramatic expression.
Miss O'Neil is cast as the Princess Fedora Romanoff, a wealthy and beautiful young widow of St. Petersburg. She is betrothed to Vladimir Boroff, a young man of high social position in the Russian capital. On the eve of their wedding Vladimir is murdered. The Princess Fedora, transformed by the tragedy from a gentle, loving woman into a veritable tigress, vows to devote her life to the punishment of the unknown slayer.
The suspicions of the police are centered upon Boris Ivanoff, an acquaintance of Vladimir's and Fedora follows him to New York to gather evidence against him. In New York Fedora gains the friendship and confidence of Boris and in turn loses her heart to him. Her vengeful nature is not to be denied, however, and when she learns from his own lips that Boris is Vladimir's assailant, she throws her love aside and denounces him to the Russian secret police.
Agents of the police are sent to kill Boris and Fedora agrees to lure him to his doom. In an intensely dramatic scene the Princess learns that Vin-dimir was not murdered, but met his death in a fairly fought duel with Boris, and richly deserved his fate.
Her desire for vengeance disappears and she wants only to save the man she loves from the police agents, instead of whom she has betrayed him.
This she accomplishes. The efforts of the police are frustrated and from the shadow of impending tragedy, Fedora and Boris emerge to find a lasting happiness.

Do You Want Help?
Try our classified ads. One cent a word. Results follow.

It Will Pay You
To read our advertising columns.

Read The Daily Courier.

SOISSON THEATRE

CHILDREN "THE HOUSE OF LILIES" ADULTS
5 TO-DAY 10

JEAN SOTHORN IN THE THRILLING SERIAL

"THE MYSTERIES OF MYRA"

HERBERT RAWLINSON IN THE TWO REEL GOLD SEAL DRAMA

"Nature Incorporated"

A REX SPECIAL OF INTERESTING SCENES IN MEXICO

"War-Ridden Mexico"

JANE GAIL IN THE IMP COMEDY

"A Stranger in His Own Home"

TOMORROW

HOBART BOSWORTH IN THE FIVE REEL DRAMA

"DR. NEIGHBOR"

Wright-Metzler Co.

July Clearance Ladies' and Misses' Apparel

Offers the Most Substantial Savings

—It would require an entire page—and more—to describe each item completely, so we can only list them in the briefest possible way. This story will show your savings. We leave the rest for your inspection.

—Entire Stock Wool Suits,
sizes 16 to 32, Half Price.

—A Big assortment Ladies' Colored Wash Dresses, $3.00 and $4.00 values, $2.49; $6.00
to $7.50 values, $4.95; $10.00
to $12.50 values, $6.99; $15.00
to $22.50 values, $10.00.

—One special lot Silk Dresses
$25 to $35 values, $15.75.

—Ladies' White Wash Dresses, $7.50 values, $5.99; $10.00 values, $7.50; $15.00 values, $11.25; $25.00 values, $15.75.

—Children's Colored Wash Dresses, sizes 6 to 14, $1.50
values, $1.29; $2.75 values,
$2.19; $3.50 values, $2.98.

—Ladies' Misses' and Juniors' Coats, $7.50 values,
$6.99; $10.00 values, $7.50;
$12.50 values, $9.38; $15.00
values, $11.25; $25.00 values, $15.50.

—Children's Coats, sizes 6 to 14, $2.50 values, $1.88; $4.50
values, $3.28; $5.95 values,
$4.47; $7.50 values, $5.43.

The Greatest Clearance of Art Needlework This Store Has Ever Held. Buy Now and Save

—Royal Society Package Outfits, One-Fourth Off.

—Royal Society Finished Models, One-Half and One-Third Less.

—Stamped and made up Corset Covers, Vests, Combinations, etc., all sizes and designs; 75c to $1.50 values. HALF PRICE.

—Embd. Pillow Cases; Fruit-of-the-Loom Muslin, size 36-42. Sale price, 50c.

—Choice of Silk and Cotton Floss, price 1c.

—Salesmen's samples, cushions, sewing bags, scarfs, etc., etc., in different colors of cretonne. Clearance price, 89c.

—Turkish Baby Mats, embd. in pink and blue, 69c.

—Stamped Scarfs and Centers on White Linen. All prices and sizes. One-Fourth Off.

—Dark Linen Cushions, worth to 35c.
Sale price, 19c.

—Dark Linen Cushions, worth to 65c.
Sale price, 39c.

The Season's Smartest and Most Complete Showing of

BELTS

—WHITE KID BELTS, with nickel or kid-covered buckles, 1 1/2 to 4 inches wide, 65c to $1.25.

—SUEDE BELTS, in rose, copen, green and gold, 2 to 3 inches wide. 65c to $1.25.

—COMBINATION BELTS of satin and white kid in rose, green, gold and copen, $1.25.

—WHITE KID BELTS, with colored kid stripes, in copen, green, rose and black, 65c.

Wonderful Values in Our July Clearance of Silks

—45 inch Natural Color Palm Beach Cloth, $2.00 value, $1.00 yard.

—36 inch Natural Color Crepe, Tussah, $1.50 value, $1.00 yard.

—42 inch Striped Crepe de Chine, $1.50 value $1.19
yard.

—48 inch Silk Shirtings, $1.00 value, 65c yd.

—One lot fancy Silks, stripes, plaids and checks, regular at $1.25, $1.35, $1.50 and $2.00 yard. Sale price, One-Fourth Off.

—SUK Serge, plain black and black-and-white stripes, $1.50 values, $1.10 yard.

—Sailed Linings, sateen and cambric, regular at 15c to 40c yard. Sale price, One-Fourth Off.

Attractive Styles and Prices in Boys' Wash Suits

—A complete line of Wash Suits, including all sizes 2 to 8 years, in many different colors and styles, to sell for only 50c.

—Boys' Plain Pants, including white, all sizes, 8 to 8 years, worth up to $1.00. Special Price, 50c.

Gold Bond Stamps in Addition to all Special Clearance Prices

A PIQUANT MOTORCOAT
ALSO SUITABLE FOR TRAVEL

MME. DORA DE PHILIPPE.

MME. DORA DE PHILIPPE, who will be heard here on the seventh night of the Chateauville, has appeared in many leading roles in this and other countries and is perhaps one of the most popular prima-donnas of the present day. She created the role of Iris in the opera of that name and sang it throughout America with great success. She was also the creator of the title role in "The Secret of Suzanne" in Canada and has won much praise for her interpretation of both Mimi and Annette in "La Boheme." But it is for the pathetic, heartbroken little heroine in Puccini's "Madame Butte-fly" that Mme. Philippe has won an overlasting place in the heart of the American public. She was the creator of this role in America and has sung it over 300 times, each time with marked success.

Read The Daily Courier.

PARAMOUNT THEATRE

TODAY

The Home of the Pipe Organ.

HAROLD LOCKWOOD AND MAY ALLISON WILL ENTERTAIN YOU AT THE PARAMOUNT THEATRE TODAY IN THE TREMENDOUS METRO WONDERPLAY

"The Masked Rider"

A VERY GREAT PICTURE IN FIVE SUPREME ACTS—REMEMBER THE DAY AND THE PLACE

"FOR BETTER OR WORSE"

VIM COMEDY

TOMORROW

DUSTIN FARRIN IN

"DAVID GARRICK"

PARAMOUNT FEATURE IN 5 ACTS

TRY OUR CLASSIFIED ADS. ONLY 1c A WORD.

Arcade Theatre

TODAY

NANCE O'NEIL, AMERICA'S FOREMOST TRAGIC ACTRESS IN

"Princess Romanoff"

A SIX PART PICTURIZATION OF VICTORIAN SARDOUS FAMOUS STORY.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN CARTOON COMEDY.

WHO IS YOUR FAVORITE IN THE ARCADE? POPULARITY CON-TEST?—SAVE THE COUPONS.

J. N. Trump WHITE LINE TRANSFER E

MOTOR TRUCKS and WAGONS
MOVING and HOISTING
PLANS A SPECIALTY.

Office 401 E. Grape Alley, Opposite N. R. Depot, Both Phones.

INSURANCE

That is sound, safe and sure.

Sam F. Hood & Co.

4th Floor
2nd Nat. Bank Bldg.

WEAR Horner's Clothing